Many Friends Attend Wedding Miss Vick

A beautiful wedding took place at the Hertford Methodist Church on Saturday morning at 11:00 o'clock when Miss Louise Millbrooke Vick became the bride of Mr. Theodore Henry Keidanz, in the presence of a large gathering of friends.

The church was tastefully decorated in "Queen Anne's lace" and other white flowers and ferns, and was softly lighted by tall candles.

Miss Kate M. Blanchard, of Hertford, at the organ played as the guests were assembling, Schubert's "Serenade" and Herbert's "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life."

Immediately before the entrance of the bride party L. W. Anderson sang "At Dawning," by Cadman and "L'Amour, Troujours, L'Amour," by Frinel.

During the ceremony "O Perfect Love," by Barnby was softly played. The bride party entered the church to the strains of "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played as a recessional.

The bride had as her maid of honor her only sister, Miss Helen Vick, who wore a dress of blue silk organdie with white accessories and carried an arm bouquet of garden flowers.

There were two bridesmaids, Miss Anne Keidanz, of Dayton, Ohio, a sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. E. G. McMullan, of New Bern, a cousin of the bride.

Miss Keidanz was dressed in yellow silk organdie, with accessories to match. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of garden flowers.

Mrs. McMullan wore pink silk organdie with matching accessories and carried an arm bouquet of garden flowers.

The ushers, J. H. Towe and W. H. Pitt, both of Hertford, lighted the candles. The bridegroom had as his best man Abner Landis, of New York.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, wore a lovely gown of white satin, made Princess style, with a long veil arranged with a coronet and orange blossoms.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. P. Robinson, pastor of the Hertford M. E. Church.

Immediately after the ceremony a luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, the guests including, in addition to the bride party, the out-of-town guests, relatives and a few intimate friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Keidanz spent several days at Nags Head and also visited in Hertford this week. They will be at home later in New York City, where the bridegroom is engaged in real estate business and the bride holds a position as general cashier at the Hotel New Yorker.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Vick, of Hertford. For several years she has held a position in New York, making frequent visits to her old home in Hertford, where she has many friends.

The bridegroom is a son of the late Dr. E. H. Keidanz and Mrs. Keidanz, of New York City. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and a member of the Quarterdeck. For several years he has been engaged in the real estate business in New York.
