

MRS. J. E. EAVES HONOURED AT LOVELY BIRTHDAY PARTY

A surprise birthday party was given on Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. John E. Eaves, the occasion being her fifty-ninth birthday, with Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Eaves and Miss Adelaide L. Eaves as joint hostesses. The guests had all assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Eaves when the honoree was induced to go to the home on a pretext. As she entered the room the waiting guests rose and greeted her with a chorus of "happy birthday."

The room was decorated with white rose of sharon and multi-colored sinias. There were two contests, the winners of which were Sadie Vivian Harrell and William Bateman, both presenting the prizes to the honoree. The little granddaughter, Alma Lee Eaves, and little Edna Ruth Lane entered the room bearing a large basket covered with white and pink, and laden with gifts for the guest of honor.

Mrs. S. I. Cullipher, a former school mate of Mrs. Eaves, presented the honor guest with a beautiful birthday cake, with the words "happy birthday" outlined in pink. Delicious ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. A. M. Riddick, Mrs. Reuben Stallings and Mrs. S. I. Cullipher. Those present were: Mrs. S. I. Cullipher, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lane, quartermaster meeting at Oak Grove church Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Perry of Edenton visited Mrs. James Goodman Sunday.

Mrs. Lou Humphries and children visited Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Humphries Sunday.

J. E. Turner visited his mother, Mrs. G. W. Turner, of Elizabeth City, Friday.

BANKS PLAN ADVERTISING

Substantial funds have been set aside from the reserves of the American Bankers Association to finance the development by its Advertising Department of a service of informative newspaper advertisements setting forth in brief, popular language the methods and policies under which banks operate, their effective practices for protecting their depositors funds, the services they render and the various ways in which they cooperate with business in their own communities in fostering sound recovery and progress.

Some 250 banks are now using this material and it is available at a moderate price for all of the members in the association who care to use it in bringing about better public understanding in their own communities regarding banking and its services. It has materially stimulated the use of newspaper advertising among banks.

Many favorable comments have been expressed regarding the informative and constructive character of its messages. It is issued in two sizes: the larger size is 3 columns wide by 10 inches deep, but in some instances subscribing banks have expanded this to occupy full pages in their local papers in order to obtain a more emphatic effect. Four pieces of advertising copy are supplied each month in this service.
