THIS WEEK'S BIBLE THOUGHT

KINGDOM IS WITHIN: Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for behold, the kingdom of God is within you.—Luke 17:21.

MUST COME SOONER OR LATER

Walter H. Oakey, Jr., judge of Perquimans County Recorder's Court, is adhering to his expressed determination to sentence to jail every defendant convicted in his court of driving an automobile while drunk. This week he sentenced the third offender to a jail term for this offense.

C. P. Dickinson, judge of the Recorder's Court of Wilson County, this week also sentenced drunken drivers to jail terms.

Judge Oakey's initial step in his avowed intention to do everything in his power to stop the slaughter on the highways provoked a good deal of favorable editorial comment in various newspapers in the State. The Associated Press carried the story of his second jail sentence meted out to a drunken driver.

Judge Dickinson's action this week in sentencing drunken drivers to jail is also very favorably commented on by the press of the State.

That the courts have been too lenient with these offenders in the past is evinced by the fact that it is news when a judge imposes a jail sentence for drunken driving, and that everywhere is there commendation for his action expressed.

The public is at last beginning to be aroused by the horror of so many fatal accidents on the highways. A large number of these deaths is caused by the driver who is under the influence of liquor.

The time must come when a jail sentence will be inevitable for the drunken driver.

TIME TO SAY "YES" OR "NO"

A chance to vote on whether or not to continue the corn-hog control program is given the farmers.

If you do not like the program, Mr. Farmer, now is your time to say so. If you do like it and want it continued, you should express yourself. You are given an opportunity.

A REMINDER OF THE PAST

Distinguished English Friends are coming to Perquimans next week. The announcement is reminiscent of the visit of other English Friends to Perquimans. It is two hundred and

A delightful birthday dinner was given at the home of M. T. Lane on Sunday in honor of Mrs. M. T. Lane and their daughter, Seva. The dining room was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers, while two birthday cakes, one holding 27 candles, and the other, 5 candles, formed the attractive centerpiece on the dining table. Several relatives and a number of friends were present, and enjoyed a delicious dinner.

CURTISS—TURNAGE

Mrs. Clarsey B. Turnage and William H. H. Curtiss, both of Hertford, were quietly married on Tuesday, October 15, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. D. S. Dempsey, pastor of the Hertford Baptist Church, at the parsonage.

The bride is 63 years of age, and the bridegroom likewise is 63.

sixty-three years since that visit, when the first sermon ever preached in North Carolina of which there is any record was delivered by William Edmondson on "Phelps Point," now Hertford, "under the hemlock trees."

John Fox, the founder of the Friends Church, also paid a visit to Perquimans later that year.

William Edmondson and John Fox were given a right hearty greeting by the scattered settlers in 1672. Friendly Indians were among the little company who heard the Friends.

Mighty and lasting have been the influence of those early English Friends on the lives of the people of Perquimans.

HIT OR MISS

W. L. Hoffer, former Hertford boy who now lives in Richmond, Va., and who was a visitor in Hertford this week, with a party of friends took a trip to Cuba some weeks ago, and happened to be in Miami, Florida, on the night that the terrible hurricane swept the Florida Keys, leaving death and desolation in its wake.

The party was delayed for twenty-four hours, after which they took a plane for Havana, passing over the devastated area and seeing from the air the awful havoc wrought by the storm.

Mrs. R. T. Clarke, whose husband was a member of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church, South, and who now lives in Hertford, has not missed attending but three of the annual conferences of the church in the past 45 years. Mrs. Clarke is attending the conference at Danville, Va., this week.

A colored man was being tried in Recorder's Court upon the charge of non-support on Tuesday. The wife as prosecuting witness had taken her young child to court. She had testified that her husband had not been home in eight months.

Then the defendant was placed upon the stand. "Daddy, Daddy," said the child, and leaving her mother, toddled over to the witness chair, where the father placed his hand on his child's head.

"Hasn't that child seen you in eight months?" asked Judge Oakey of the defendant. "Yes, Sir," was the reply, "she sees me every time I go there to carry something."

"Case dismissed," said Judge Oakey.

S. P. Mathews, prominent Belvidere Township farmer, who has been sick, is improving, and was in town on Monday. Mr. Mathews, who is 58 years of age, had a doctor visit him professionally last week for the first time since he was a boy of seventeen.

Missionary Society Of Bethel Meets

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Bethel Baptist Church held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon at the church, with the president, Mrs. J. M. Fleetwood, presiding. The devotionals were conducted by Mrs. J. C. Hobbs. A very interesting program followed the business session, the topic being, "Youth Uplifting the Banner." After the program, Miss Ruby Keaton and Miss Kathryn Fleetwood gave a very interesting dialogue, "Talking Across a Century." The meeting was then dismissed by the president. There were fourteen members and two visitors present.

DEAL—CHAMBERS

Miss Marie Deal and Mr. Robert Chambers were married Saturday, October 12th at South Mills. Miss Deal is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Deal, of Chappanoke. Mr. Chambers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Chambers, of Elizabeth City, Route Three.
