Hints To Gardeners

Good Start Important

THE value of a garden plant, vegetable or flower, depends greatly upon the start it gets; so give your seedlings ample care.

Begin cultivation as soon as rows are visible, if soil is not wet. Work close to the small plants, cultivating shallowly as they grow, to avoid injury to root growth.

Cultivate often, at least once a week. Three days' delay almost doubles the work.

Watering should not be necessary the first week or ten days after seeds have sprouted. If ground is baked hard and sprouts do not appear, the surface may be disturbed slightly to help the sprouts through.

Seedlings may best be watered in two ways: Mark a shallow trench about four inches from the row and run trench full of water, or, using a fine spray, apply water from directly above plants. Watering is most effective when it closes up following cultivation.

If garden is definitely backward, it may be aided by a light application of ammonium sulphate or a nitrate fertilizer. Ask your dealer for a recommended preparation for your type soil, and get definite instructions. Apply sparingly. Too much nourishment causes heavy blight at the expense of flowering.

With fertilizer application and with weeding, however, the best time for action is before planting, not after. If it is too late this year, remember it next Spring.

Small plants should be thinned, as directed on packets, to allow proper development. Certain vegetables may be used as thinned. For instance, onions thinned may be used as green onions, and lettuce may be picked for immediate use, leaving smaller leaves to develop.

Gum-Dipping not only strengthens the cords but prevents heat inside the cords, where it insulates the tiny fibers against friction and protects Firestone High Speed Tires from blowouts.

This heavy, broad, traction and non-skid tread is held to the cord body of the tire with Two Extra Layers of Gum-Dipped Cords, a patented construction, making the cord body and tread an inseparable unit.

The angles in the scientifically designed Firestone High Speed tread are so placed as to stop a car quicker and without side-swerve. Its super-traction and non-skid efficiency have also been proved in the famous Pike's Peak Race where for eight consecutive years it has been used on the winning cars.
