Mr. Parker Monds Passes To His Reward

After nearly three weeks of suffering from a paralytic stroke, our loved one, Parker Monds, passed to his reward. He was 75 last January 2nd, the son of William and Harriett Monds. All service that medical skill, loving hands and friends could do was rendered, but God saw best, so He took him to rest from his toil and care, to meet his companion, "Anna Byrum Monds" of over 50 years who preceded him 3 years ago last March.

He leaves a son, Thomas Edward Monds, a daughter, Martha Monds, four grandchildren, all of Tyner; a brother, Rev. Riley Sidney Monds, of Hertford; a sister, Mrs. Isaac Jordan, of Ballards Bridge; many nieces and nephews, and a host of friends.

The funeral was conducted at the home by his pastor, Rev. Frank Cale, of Center Hill Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. R. E. Walston, of the Center Hill Methodist Church. His favorite hymns were sung by a quartet composed of Rev. Frank Cale, L. W. Belch, Mrs. J. Tim White and Mrs. Joe Byrum, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Perry: "Lord, I Am Coming Home" and "Does Jesus Care?" A solo, "Sometime We'll Understand" was rendered by Mrs. J. Tim White. Interment was made in the family cemetery near the home by the side of his wife. At the graveside "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung by the quartet. The sacred mound was covered with floral gifts from loved ones and friends, which were carried by nephews and nieces, R. S. Monds, Jr., Mrs. R. Tucker, Isaac Jordan, Mrs. Gus Perry, Dewey Boyce, Miss Mamie Byrum, Edward Byrum, Mrs. Blannie Copeland, Cecil Boyce, Miss Gertrude Byrum.

Palbearers were: Tom Byrum, J. H. Byrum, Jesse P. Byrum, Tom Byrum, W. T. Forehand, J. Tim White. A beautiful Mother's Day so many gathered to pay a last tribute, even many colored ones.

AT NAGS HEAD

Miss Nellie Feilds and Morgan Walker spent Sunday afternoon at Nags Head.

"Homespun Economics" in Quebec

QUEBEC—The Province of Quebec, thumbing the pages of its colonial traditions, has come up with "homespun economics" as the answer to many an individual clothing problem as well as the means to annual production of $1,000,000 worth of merchandise, much of which is sold by the habitants or natives to the American tourists. Countless "fireside factories" like the one shown here dot the picturesque countryside in a comeback of old French-Canadian domestic arts which is being encouraged by the Government through establishment of a Provincial School of Handicraft.

Historic Romance

A vivid screen parallel to the real-life romance of the title heroine is offered in "Annie Oakley," dramatically incorporating events in the life of this renowned rifle shot who starred in Buffalo Bill's arena show. Barbara Stanwyck stars, supported by Preston Foster and Melvyn Douglas. The picture will be seen at the Taylor Theatre Friday.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband, Archie Ray Miller, who left me one year ago today, May 28, 1935. To your grave I often wander, Flowers I place with loving care. And I feel that you are near me While I sadly linger near.

I often sit and think of you When I am all alone, For memory is the only thing That grief can call its own. Could you ask me if I miss you Yes, it fills my heart with pain. But your spirit sweetly whispers, Courage, we shall meet again.

—Devoted wife, Effie T. Miller.
