

William Tucker Takes Job At Drug Store

William Tucker has accepted a position at Robinson's Drug Store and assumed his new duties this week. Mr. Tucker was formerly employed at Morgan's Modern Grocery. Carl Britt, formerly at Robinson's, has resigned his position and left this week for Spartanburg, S. C., where he will enroll in the Spartanburg Textile School.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Thomas, of Asheville, are guests this week of Mrs. Thomas' sister, Mrs. M. J. Gregory. They were called here by the sudden death of Mrs. Thomas' brother, William Hunter, of Creswell, who was buried at Hunters Fork on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stamey and their two sons, Charles and Rod, of Houston, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Stamey's mother, Mrs. C. W. Morgan, in Hertford.

RYLAND

Rocky Hock was defeated by the Ryland nine on the diamond at the Randolph Ward home Saturday afternoon, the score being 10-11 for the Ryland boys. The game was largely attended, and was enjoyed. Both teams played good ball. The people in the community should encourage these boys in this form of sport by their attendance at the games and a little financial support, as some equipment is absolutely necessary. What about an ice cream supper one of these hot nights? The proceeds could be put in balls and bats for the boys. Think it over!

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Jordan and family, and William Ward spent Sunday at Nags Head and Fort Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hollowell and children, Guy, Aubrey and Barbara Anne, of Edenton, visited Mrs. Hollowell's mother, Mrs. Harriett Parks, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Corrie Spivey and daughter, Miss Rella Spivey, attended services at Chappell Hill Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon.

Revival services are now in progress at Happy Home, and strong sermons are being delivered by those preaching. The music is exceptionally good this year.

Miss Irene Gaskins, of Pitt County, is the guest of Mrs. Roy Parks.

Mrs. H. N. Ward and her little granddaughter, Leila Faye Ward, Mrs. G. S. Nixon and her daughter, Mildred, of Emporia, Va., visited Mrs. D. T. Ward Wednesday morning.

The picnic from Ryland Sunday School went to Holleys Wharf yesterday (Thursday) afternoon. It is to be regretted that the community as a whole takes so little interest in the Sunday School. The visiting period after the short service should be worth coming out for, and the benefit to be received from the lesson is invaluable. True the days are hot, but the hot weather keeps very few from places of amusement, so why not attend your Sunday School first? Mrs. Ronella Harrell, from near Colerain, visited her father, O. C. Ward, and sister, Miss Minerva Ward, last week.
