BIBLE THOUGHT FOR WEEK

QUIETUDE: Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house full of sacrifices with strife.—Proverbs 17:1.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to the publishers of The Daily Independent.

The new daily, the only morning daily newspaper in the Albemarle, published by the Independent Publishing Company, of Elizabeth City, made its first appearance on Monday of this week.

Each issue carries eight pages of interesting news, features and advertisements. The Daily Independent is a credit to the community and an achievement in which its editors and publishers may well take pride.

AN APPRECIATION WELL DESERVED

Often in the past the stores and other places of business in Hertford have closed their doors as a mark of respect when the funeral of some prominent citizen was being conducted in the town.

Probably for the first time in its history, the business places of Hertford and the public offices closed for an hour on Monday morning while a funeral was being conducted in a distant city.

It was very fitting indeed that this honor should have been shown Clinton W. Toms. It is significant that it was unnecessary even to suggest in some instances that places of business close their doors. When it was learned that it was the intention of certain places of business to close their doors, all the others in the town fell in line and voluntarily suspended business for an hour. Such an attitude on the part of the citizens of the town, many of whom had never personally known him, is indicative of the feeling of respect that the people of his native home felt for Mr. Toms, whose interest in his old home had found expression in so many deeds of kindness.

If it be true, as some one has said, that all we carry with us when we leave this world is that which we have given away, what a world of wealth Clinton White Toms took with him into eternity!
