

CHILLED LOAF FOR HOT DAYS

PEER of all luncheon loaves is a new recipe combining Brazil nuts, ham and potato salad. And when the dish finally is decked with lettuce, tomato and cucumber, it has appeal to the eye as well as the taste.

Simplicity itself in the making, it is adapted to the warmest days of summer—days when refrigerated food is most refreshing.

Chilling the loaf thoroughly for several hours in an automatic refrigerator is a new trick for the cook who usually thinks of baking meat loaves. Instructions for making the new dish are: Marinate potatoes and onion in French dressing for a half-hour. Add Brazil nuts and enough mayonnaise to moisten. Mix well and then pack half the potato salad in a medium-sized bread pan. Mix ham, mustard and enough mayonnaise to moisten, and then spread over potato salad. Pack in remaining potato salad and chill mixture in refrigerator several hours.

Serve on a chop plate garnished with sliced cucumbers, sliced tomatoes and romaine or lettuce.

BRAZIL NUT LOAF

2 cups diced cooked potatoes.
1-4 cup French dressing,
1 sliced onion.
3-4 cup sliced Brazil nuts.
Mayonnaise.
1-2 pound ground cooked ham.
1 teaspoon prepared mustard.
Sliced cucumbers.
Sliced tomatoes.
Romaine or lettuce.

Another refreshing recipe combines the delicate flavors of Brazil nuts, apples and celery in a fascinating salad. The approved recipe:

BRAZIL NUT, APPLE AND CELERY SALAD

1 1-2 cups diced apples, 1-2 cup sliced Brazil nuts, 1 1-2 cups finely chopped celery, Mayonnaise or boiled dressing.
Mix apple, celery and nuts with mayonnaise. Serve on lettuce and garnish with water-cress.

SAVORY RICE

1/4 pound bacon.
3 1-4 cups strained tomatoes or tomato juice.
2-3 cup rice, uncooked.
3 tablespoons chopped green peppers.
3 tablespoons chopped onion.
1 teaspoon salt.
1-8 teaspoon pepper.

Cut the bacon in small pieces and fry nearly crisp in a skillet. Pour off half the bacon drippings, add tomatoes and remaining ingredients, then place the cover on. Cook covered for 45 minutes on a slow fire.

Demonstration Clubs Oppose Sign Boards

A general boycott of products advertised on large, outdoor sign boards is being pushed by the North Carolina Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs.

Declaring war on outdoor advertising, the Federation stated that large signs not only mar the landscape, but they are also a serious menace when they distract the attention of automobile drivers.

In resolutions adopted at the annual meeting of the Federation, the members were urged "to discourage the use of billboards by not purchasing, insofar as possible, those products thus advertised, unless the signs are small and blend into the landscape."

The cooperation of farmers, merchants, chambers of commerce, women's clubs, and other civic organizations is being sought.

The Federation also went on record as endorsing the soil-improvement program which replaced the old AAA, and pledged the support of its members.

The members, composed of home demonstration club women over the State, were asked to continue their stand for world peace, and to do what they could to secure a traveling library truck for each county in the State.

Since money has been appropriated for aiding crippled children, the State Health Department has asked the cooperation of home demonstration club women in locating these children.

The Federation recommended that club members give all assistance possible in this work.

Talking Fish at Expo

DALLAS, Tex.—Now it's the talking catfish.

Two of this type of catfish were received recently at the Texas Centennial Exposition Aquarium.

They won that cognomen because of the peculiar noises they make when they are taken from the water.

The fish were discovered in the Amazon river, and procured by the Aquarium from a New York importer.

Will Rogers' Humorous Story

By WILL ROGERS

THERE is a Scotchman that lives in Chicago, and he has a radio. There was a lot of conversation at the club one day about radio stuff, but Sandy didn't join in. One of the fellows says, "Sandy, you got a radio, ain't you?"

"Aye, I got one."

"Well, don't you listen in on the programs every night?"

"No, I dinna want to burn out me bulbs."

"But how do you get your money's worth out of the radio?"

"On the Sabbath, I used to go to church. But now I turn on the radio. There's nice morning services, and two at evening. I turn from one to the other when they're taking the collections, and I imagine I'm givin' a dollar in each basket. 'Tis a great feeling, and worth it, too."

BREAKS ANKLE

Mrs. R. W. Smith suffered a broken ankle when she slipped and fell at her home in Hertford on Wednesday morning of last week.
