BIBLE THOUGHT FOR WEEK

A SURE FOUNDATION: Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.—II Timothy 2:19.

DO YOUR DUTY TUESDAY!

Next Tuesday is Election Day. We are all going to the polls and vote for the candidates of our choice. Indications are that the vote will be a big one. We are going to the polls in big numbers, for it seems that the average voter is much more decided this year than usual. Particularly is this true with reference to the presidential candidates.

More so than ever before, perhaps, though it is a note which is always harped upon, the idea is abroad in the land that we are at the cross roads, that now is the time to decide whether we shall go to the dogs or not.

Not every one feels this way, of course. But there is a surprising number who do. It has been dinned into our ears that the country must go to ruin unless this candidate is elected; and, on the other hand, it has been hammered into our consciousness that it is certainly going to the dogs unless that candidate is elected.

Indeed, so much of this sort of thing do we hear that it is rather surprising that there have not been more cases like that of the poor fellow suffering from a nervous breakdown who said he fully expected to wake up the morning after election and look out of his window to see that all the houses are being pulled down and everything destroyed.

Now, it happens that I am going to vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt. I believe very firmly in the President. I hope to see him re-elected. I believe he will be re-elected.

You, perhaps, expect to vote for Mr. Landon, and you believe in him to quite the same extent that I do in Mr. Roosevelt, and you are equally hopeful of seeing your candidate win out.

One of these two candidates, representing the two major parties, is going to be at the head of the government for the next four years, and, everything which has been said to the contrary notwithstanding, the country, this United States, is not going to ruin if your candidate does not come out victorious, and neither is it going to the dogs if my candidate should lose.

Still, there are some things we ought not to be forgetting. Why not continue the man in office who is responsible for conditions which have made us safer, more comfortable, happier, you and I? Why not give him the opportunity to continue the work he has begun? He should be allowed to complete the program.

Did you lose your savings in a bank failure? Maybe you didn't, but many did, you know. Don't forget that it was Franklin D. Roosevelt who arranged that that couldn't happen again. The money you deposit in the bank is safe and if the bank should fail you would be paid every penny of it. That never was the case before.

If he hadn't done anything else during his administration, this alone would be sufficient reason to reelect him.

You may not approve of some of the changes which have come about during the last four years as a result of some of the administration's activities. Neither do I. Probably Mr. Roosevelt himself doesn't. But there were bound to be mistakes, you know. Everybody makes them, even Mr. Roosevelt's critics. They are human, too.

A lot of government money has been spent, and that seems to be the big kick of his opposers. But wasn't it better for the government to give money to relieve human misery than that people be allowed to starve when there was gold and to spare? I think so.

Let's go to the polls in big numbers next Tuesday, and let's vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt.

RYLAND

McCauley Byrum and a party of friends from Goldsboro, were visiting relatives here Sunday.

Roy Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Jordan went to Elizabeth City Sunday afternoon to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jordan's young son, Wilbur, who is convalescing at the Albemarle Hospital after an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. G. A. Boyce and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, near Sunbury, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Ward and little daughter, Lelia Faye, were in Edenton last Wednesday morning. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Byrum, near Cannons Ferry.

It is to be deplored that Sunday School in the community has been discontinued. It is true that with the school building being used daily for the lower grades from Chowan High School no suitable place seems available. However, should the community wish a Sunday School badly enough, a way could be found to have it. More stress should be laid on the teaching of the Bible as the knowledge gained from this Book will be a source of joy through all the years.

Mrs. Jessie Leroy Byrum and little son and Mrs. Byrum visited Mrs. N. E. Jordan Friday.

MISS CANNON HOSTESS
 Miss Edna Ruth Cannon was hostess at a delightful party given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Cannon, on East Academy Street, on Tuesday evening.

An old fashioned game, "Treasure Hunt", was played by the young people, resulting in a very merry evening; the prize being won by Morgan Walker. An ice course was served. The guests included Misses Grace Knowles, Mattie Bert Reife, Bernice White and Nellie Fields, and Morgan Walker, Jim Bob White, William White, Heywood Divers and Noah Gregory.
