LOCAL RED CROSS CHAPTER SEEKING FIRST AID DEPOT

Would Locate Station on Hertford - Elizabeth City Highway

MAN IN CHARGE

Emergency Treatments To Victims Automobile Accidents

Mrs. C. F. Sumner, Jr., who is chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call for Perquimans County, stated this week that the objective of the local chapter is to establish a Red Cross first aid station on the highway between Hertford and Elizabeth City.

The purpose of these first aid stations which the Red Cross is maintaining on the highways is to give emergency treatment to victims of automobile accidents which may occur on the highway. In a great many instances much may be done toward the relief of suffering and even in some instances toward saving lives if intelligent first aid may be had promptly.

The Red Cross furnishes a first aid kit which contains all of the necessities for first aid treatment, and also provides instruction for the man in charge of the station.

While no definite arrangement has been made for the location of such a station as yet, it has been suggested that the best location for such a station on the Hertford-Elizabeth City highway is the store of George Jackson's, which is said to be approximately half way between Hertford and the Pasquotank County line.

Half of the funds raised in the roll call are retained in the county for local work, and it is this fund which will be used to establish and maintain such a station.

Thief Arrested While Getting Away On Bus

He was a slick worker, and nobody knows how many small articles he may have been successful in stealing from Hertford merchants before he was caught with the coat he had just taken from the store of Simon's. That the coat was recovered after the stranger had made a getaway on a north-bound bus, was due to the quick thinking of W. A. Williams and the prompt action of Deputy Sheriff Cook Winslow, to say nothing of the swift driving of Marion Riddick.

It all began last week, when clerks in the various stores, in that of J. C. Blanchard & Company, H. C. Stokes and Darden Bros., in particular, began to notice and comment upon the suspicious behavior of three strange men, who hung around in the stores, calling for various items of merchandise, making a cursory examination and then offering some vague excuse for not purchasing.

Mrs. J. E. Everett, at H. C. Stokes, had been upset by the actions of the men, and when they again turned up on Monday afternoon and continued to look around, she was definitely suspicious and called the attention of Mr. Stokes, the proprietor, to the situation. The tall stranger, wearing a long black raincoat, left shortly after Mr. Stokes came in. The man went on down to the store of Simon Rutenberg after that. He visited the ladies' ready-to-wear department on the second floor and then he inquired if his wife had been up. Receiving a reply in the negative, he asked if he might sit down and wait for a while. Mrs. Jake White took notice of the fact that he appeared to be interested in the general lay-out. He left the store but came back about an hour later, this time just before the north-bound bus was due. He engaged in conversation with Mr. Rutenberg while on the first floor and left after Mr. Rutenberg became occupied with a customer. Strangely enough, there was a call for a leather coat within a few minutes after the stranger had left, and then it was found that one particular coat which had been there shortly before had disappeared.

W. A. Williams made the discovery when his customer called for this particular kind of coat. Hurrying out, he ascertained that the bus had just gone and that on it had gone three strangers. Getting in touch immediately with Deputy Sheriff Winslow, Marion Riddick and his car were commanded and a merry chase ensued for the next few minutes. It took some pretty fast driving, because the buses which travel through Perquimans do not travel at

"Now I Lay Me—"

This child was hurt when a tornado struck Tupelo, Mississippi, necessitating medical and nursing care for hundreds—care which in many cases could not have been given without Red Cross assistance. It is a fine tribute to the organization that the young beneficiaries of its health and relief services invariably place themselves in the hands of the Red Cross with a completely confident, "Now I lay me—"

Annual Red Cross Roll Call Far Short Of Goal

Only $68.50 Reported Collected In Hertford Toward Goal of $100; Many Regular Contributors Missing From First Report Sent In

The Red Cross Roll Call, which began on last Wednesday, under the leadership of Mrs. C. F. Sumner, Jr., with Mesdames C. P. Morris, T. J. Nixon, Jr., Charles E. Johnson, V. N. Darden, Riddick Chappell, E. E. Payne and W. T. Brown, as assistants, has resulted in the collection of $68.50 to date in the Town of Hertford. No reports have as yet come in from the districts outside of the Town of Hertford.

This amount is far short of the goal of $100.00 which has been set for the county, but the workers have not yet given up. In the list appearing below it will be noted that the names of a great many persons who regularly contribute each year to the Red Cross do not appear. In most cases this is believed to be due to the fact that not every one has been solicited. Not all of the workers have completed their canvass, but every effort will be made to give every one a chance to join, or at least to contribute, and these additional names will appear in next week's issue of the Perquimans Weekly.

Those who have joined the Red Cross Roll Call, contributing $1.00 each, to date, are as follows: Darden Bros., Roberson's Drug Store, Mattie Lister White, Hollowell Chevrolet Company, The Perquimans Weekly, W. M. Morgan, Mrs. W. M.

24 County Club Women Attend Canning School

Twenty-four club women, representing seven of the home demonstration clubs in the county, attended the canning school conducted by Miss Gladys Kimbrough, home economist and culinary authority, sponsored by the Ball Bros. Co., and Miss Gladys Hamrick, Home Demonstration Agent at the Agricultural Building, on Tuesday.

The canning demonstration was made, using roast beef and hamburger steak. The explanation was made that other meats, including all kinds of fresh meats, are canned on the same principles. Miss Kimbrough brought out the fact that in canning ground meat, provision is made for using less choice cuts, which can be used for stuffing onions, peppers and apples and for meat loaf.

One Hertford Person Among Passengers In Bus Wreck Tuesday

Mrs. R. M. Matheson was the only Hertford person on the Carolina Coach Company's bus which was wrecked near Windsor at 9:30 on Tuesday night, and Mrs. Matheson says she believes she was the only passenger who was entirely unhurt. Acid, which was believed to have come from batteries, ruined the clothing which Mrs. Matheson wore and there were marks from the acid on her face.

The bus, which was on the regular run from Raleigh to Norfolk, and carried 16 passengers, turned over when the driver turned out to avoid striking a mule which had been killed a few minutes previously by a truck. While several persons were injured, reports were to the effect that no one was seriously injured.

Mrs. Matheson, who is the wife of the manager of Rose's store here, was returning from a visit to her mother at Greensboro.

Music Lovers Interested In New Concert Service
