Thief Arrested

a snail's pace and there are no stops on the eighteen-mile stretch to Elizabeth City.

The bus was overtaken near the County Home and the driver halted by the Deputy, who went on the bus and requested the tall man in the dark slicker to get off. "I have your coat", he told Mr. Williams, "I took it because I was cold", and bursting into tears he produced the coat from beneath the slicker.

The hard-luck yarn he told of misfortune which had overtaken him away from home, of the wife and children dependent upon him, so touched Mr. Williams that he refused to have the man prosecuted. The coat was surrendered to the owner, and, halting a passing truck, the man caught a ride and went blithely on his way.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS WITH MRS. EUNICE WINSLOW

The Woman's Missionary Society of Up River Friends Church met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Eunice Winslow at her home near Whiteston. The meeting was opened by singing "America." Mrs. Mary White Winslow conducted the devotional in the form of an Armistice Day program consisting of Scripture reading from John 1-22; a reading, "Follow Thou Me"; an original poem on "Peace"; and a poem, "The End of the King's Highway." Prayer concluded the program.

At the roll call members answered with texts on Peace. A most interesting lesson from the study book, "Congo Crosses," was presented by Mrs. Mary J. White, with a number of the members taking part. The lesson was given as a missionary staff meeting in Africa in which a missionary and her co-workers discussed present day problems in Africa and ways in which to solve them.

A very interesting report on Friends' work in Africa was given by Elizabeth White. A contest on Africa was then given with Elizabeth White winning the prize.

A delicious salad course was served by the hostess.

Those present were: Mrs. Ola White, Mrs. Mary W. Winslow, Mrs. Lindsey Winslow, Mrs. Elizabeth White, Mrs. Lucius Winslow, Mrs. Eunice Winslow, Mrs. Susan J. Winslow, Mrs. Mary J. White, and Miss Reby Winslow.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, John J. Chappell, who departed this life two years ago today, November 16, 1934.

Two years ago today
One we loved passed away
Oh how sad and lonely
When our father went away.
How we miss you, dear father,
God in Heaven alone can tell
What would we give to see your loving face
To hear your voice and see your smile as well.
Only those who've lost a father
Know our hearts that are filled with pain;
But the spirit softly whispers
Bye and bye we'll meet again.
WIFE AND CHILDREN.
