

48 HOURS LEFT OF THE BIGGEST VOTE PERIOD of CAMPAIGN

The race is very close. The intense closeness of the campaign at this time, no doubt, plays quite an important part in the hustle and bustle on the part of the more progressive candidates. They realize that not to poll a goodly number of votes Saturday night may place all of their work done in the past in real danger of defeat. They know that their competitors are trying their hardest to put them back in the running, and for this reason every candidate who has ambitions to be one of the capital prize winners in the campaign will devote every spare moment to campaigning between now and SATURDAY NIGHT.

Saturday Night At 9 o'clock Will Be Your Last Chance To Receive First Period Votes

DON'T LAG IN THE CAMPAIGN

If Saturday, Dec. 12, passes without speedy action upon your part, the responsibility rests upon yourself, candidates. Saturday night is positively the last chance you will have to enter subscriptions during the subscription campaign and secure First Period credits—the maximum number to be allowed. After this time, and throughout the remainder of the campaign, there is a material decrease in the credit value of subscriptions.

Long Term Subscriptions Count Most

And a few such orders NOW — while they count the most—may be the deciding factor in the race. In any event you can only lose by holding back.

It Is the Work Today That Counts

Now is the time for all candidates to cash in on all "promises" and secure every available subscription before the greatest vote offer of the entire campaign ends.

9 P. M. SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12 ... is the date and the hour. It positively will not be repeated.
