BIBLE THOUGHT FOR WEEK

FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD:—If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.—1 John 1:8, 10.

THINK OF OTHERS!

"Are you willing to forget what you have done for others and to remember what others have done for you; to ignore what the world owes you and to think what you owe the world; to put your rights in the background, your desires in the middle distance, and your chances to do a little more than your duty in the foreground; to see that your fellow men are just as real as you are, and to try to look behind their faces into their hearts, hungry for joy; to close your book on complaints and look around you for a place where you can sow a few seeds of happiness? Are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then you can keep Christmas.

"Are you willing to stoop down and consider the needs and the desires of little children; to remember the weakness and the loneliness of people who are growing old; to stop asking how much your friends love you and ask yourself whether you love them enough; to bear in mind the things that other people have to bear in their hearts; to try to understand what those who live in the same house with you really want, without waiting for them to tell you; to trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke, and to carry it in front of you so that your shadow will fall behind you; to make a grave for your ugly thoughts and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open? Are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then you can keep Christmas.

"Are you willing to believe that love is the strongest thing in the world, stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger, even, than death, and that the blessed life which began in Bethlehem nineteen hundred years ago is the image and the brightness of Eternal Love? Then you can keep Christmas.

"And if you can keep it for a day why not always?
"But you can never keep it alone."

A REAL SERVICE

Dr.'s Brian and Davenport are in a way to render something of real service to their community. Not that these two very able physicians haven't been rendering excellent service in the quality of their work. The erection and maintenance of the medical building which they have recently undertaken, however, will give us something far superior to anything heretofore enjoyed by the community. This is service in a big way.

The physicians are to be commended and the community congratulated.

IT LOOKS LIKE CHRISTMAS IN HERTFORD

It would be a matter of impossibility not to point with pride at Hertford's business district all lighted up for Christmas.

The town looks pretty now by night as well as by day, with the glowing lights in crimson and orange and blue and green. Not only do we take pleasure in the pretty sight, but we feel a glow of pride that strangers passing through our town after night fall are cheered by our gay and festive appearance.

It is good to feel that we are keeping step in this respect with the other towns in the Albemarle. It looks like Christmas in Hertford.

Morgan Walker Now In Old Divers Building

Morgan Walker has moved into his attractive new store in front of the State Theatre on Church Street. Mr. Walker, who formerly was located on Market Street, recently leased the place which had been occupied as a show room by the Divers Motor Company, which he had remodeled to provide two stores. One of the stores he is occupying as a confectionary, containing soda fountain and merchandise. The other, which will be under his management, but which will be entirely separate from the confectionary, will be operated as a billiard parlor.

Funeral Held Tuesday For C. W. Smith

C. W. Smith, 58, died at his home near Chapanoke on Monday morning after a lingering illness.

Funeral services were conducted at Oak Grove Methodist Church on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. W. G. Lane, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Ray Smith.

Mr. Smith was a native of Perquimans County. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mattie Scaff Smith; four sons, Earl, Durwood, Walter and Ray Smith, of Chapanoke; two sisters, Mrs. Martin Morris, of Pasquotank County, and Mrs. Will Russell, of Perquimans, and by six brothers, Kenneth, Leigh, Horace, Weldon Roscoe and Claude Smith.

Play At Snow Hill Proves Successful

Play given on Friday night at the Snow Hill School, coached by Mrs. Ralph Harrell, was quite a success, in spite of the disagreeable weather conditions. Those taking part were Misses Stella Mae Benton, Beatrice Benton, Elinor Jordan, Eunice Harrell, Lucille Cartwright, Blanche Cartwright, Sallie B. Wood, Annie Mae Mathews, Mrs. Odell Cartwright and Mrs. Elmer Wood. Each one of whom acted well her part.

The sum of twelve dollars was realized from the sale of ice cream after the program.

Perquimans Split With Moyock High School

The Perquimans High School basketball team split a double header with Moyock on Monday night. The Moyock girls took the first game from the Hertford sextet, the score being 34-22. The Moyock lassies displayed a team that was tops in passing and shooting and gave the Lady Indians their second defeat.

In the second game of the twin bill the Hertford boys took their game, with a score of 36 to 20. The Indians held their lead through the entire game.

Doc Nixon and White White split scoring honors, with 13 points each.

Woman's Club Ask Christmas Donations

At the meeting of the Woman's Club held at the club house on Thursday afternoon, the president, Mrs. F. T. Johnson, called on all those who are willing to contribute toward the Christmas baskets to be given by the club to send their contributions to Mrs. Tim Brinn's residence. The baskets will be arranged and delivered so that they may reach their destination on Christmas Eve.

The report from Mrs. V. N. Darden, chairman of the Library Committee, to the effect that a number of books have been donated the club toward the establishment of a library indicated that the women have been doing considerable work. Mrs. Darden stated that at the January meeting of the club would be present a representative from the State Library Commission, who will make suggestions and give instructions as to the procedure in getting the project in working order.

The program, which was in charge of Mrs. Thomas Nixon, chairman of the Better Homes in America department, not only featured the subject of Home but Christmas as well, with Christmas songs and readings, in which Mrs. B. G. Koonce directed a beautiful pageant.

100 Attend P. T. A. Meet At Whiteston

Mrs. Dempsey Winslow, president, presided over the Whiteston P. T. A., which held its regular meeting Thursday evening, with approximately 100 present. Devotional was led by Mrs. Dempsey Winslow with the Christmas lesson as the theme.

The teacher, Miss Mabel Lane, had charge of the interesting program which was as follows: Exercise by several children; "William's Christmas Gift;" song to Santa Claus; playlet, "The Surprise Package;" solo, Winslow Rountree. "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was sung by the audience, after which refreshments were enjoyed.

WHITESTON NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Walston of Center Hill, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baker on Tuesday of last week. Mr. Walston spent the afternoon making pastoral calls.

Those visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Winslow on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Winslow and children, Cecil Ed, Marjorie and Mary Francis; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin White and children; Francis, Kathryn and Irvin, Jr., of Hertford and Mr. and Mrs. Adrien Smith and children, Adrien, Jr., and Paul, of Bagley Swamp.

The Whiteston Home Demonstration Club met on Thursday with Mrs. John L. Lane with 17 members present and three visitors, two of whom gave their names for membership. After the hymn "Joy to the World," Lena Winslow had the devotional. After the business session Gladys Hamrick gave some suggestions, a short Christmas program was enjoyed, followed by a contest that caused much amusement and laughter. Miss Edna Winslow won the prize for drawing the best Santa Claus and Miss Lena Winslow won in finding the largest number of words taken from the word "Santa Claus." The members drew names and there was a happy exchange of delightful and lovely hand made gifts. The meeting closed with a prayer in which the hostess served fruit.
