

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE

Dublin, in the desperate days of the land, was under martial law. Dennis Riordes, leader of the Irish Rebellion, and his followers held secret meetings, blew op trains, destroyed shipments of munitions and completely thwarted Raglish rule. Lord Athleigh, an emissary from London, came to Dublin with his daughter, Lady Helon Drummond, and his aide, Gerald Preston. In attempting to help a little Irish boy whose father had died a martyr to the Cause, Helen met Dennis Riorto the Cause, Helen met Dennis Riordan and accidentally discovered his

Chapter 3

It was late when Helen returned to the Lodge. She was still shaken by her encounter with Dennis Rior-dan and the knowledge of his identity which Jerry had unwittingly revealed to her. Gerald greeted her at the door and showered her with questions; they had been terribly worried about her. Helen found her father in bed, his face marked by fatigue. He was tired and discouraged.

should be amply justified," he her, "in recommending stamping in recommending stamping hole revolt, ruthlessly. But he charged with wrecking, of Ireland, at a time when help against this handful who are solely responsible a destruction."

"That was no ordinary roundup— as I looked at it. Why were they af-

"That was no ordinary roundup—as I looked at it. Why were they after you?"

"Perhaps," suggested Dennis, "I was too clever the other night when I bragged to Colonel Loder that I was 'Dennis Riordan.' And after thinking it over for a couple of days—as English will—perhaps he decided that I might be myself and wanted to ask me again!"

"That's not what I was wonderin', Dennis. I was wonderin' if anyone besides you and myself knew you were goin' to be there."

Dennis stared thoughtfully into space. "There was somebody. I'd pledge my life she had nothing to do with it, but I've got to know."

The note which Dennis wrote Helen was delivered mysteriously by someone in the Lodge. She found it in her handbag the next morning. Dennis entreated her to come to his lodgings. Her instinctive desire to avoid him was overpowered by the feeling of guilt which weighed upon her, and she went.

At his lodgings in Pembroke Street Dennis greeted her warmly, but she was tense and uneasy.

"You apologized in your note for not being able to meet me yesterday," she began. "If you hadn't written I bloudd never have seen you agais, because I know you are Dennis Riordan. Jerry told me, without knowing it. That's how they have you'd be at the market—through me."

Dennis stared at Helen grimly and in silince. She continued quickly: "I can't apologize—because I'm not your friend—I'm your enemy—"

She continued quietly. "I can't apologize-because I'm not your friend-inspiring ceremony the decision which she had been fighting crystalized abruptly. She turned to her father.

"Father," she began hesitantly, "I—I think I know where Dennis Riordan will be tomorrow."

Trade was brisk at the Dublin Market the following day. Dennis and limits of the companies of the following day. Dennis and limits of the companies of the following day. Dennis and limits of the companies of the co

Trade was brisk at the Dublin Market the following day. Dennis and Tim O'Rourke threaded their way hrough the crowd, their hats pulled There was There was There was in O'Rourke threaded their way rough the crowd, their hats pulled wa over their faces. There was mething of the waiting lover about ennis as his eyes searched ceaseasty for Helen. O'Rourke was nerically for Helen. O'Rourke was nerical to the didn't like the look of seval may who lounged against the getable stalls. Suddenly with the areasts of an animal, Dennis need rather than saw an unusual overment of men in the crowd near m. A whistle blew shrilly. For an stant Dennis went rigid, then he ow a handful of silver from his select and threw the colns up in the ... The lingle of the money caused shout of exci-ment and delight tong the lowly Irish crowd. They so all pushing, milling and pressivery which way on the ground. It is advancing plain clothes men were upod up and delayed for the necessary which way on the ground. It is added to the street a cart, leaded to the street a cart, leaded that, was moving slowly by. Souris lost no time. His right arm and the street a cart, leaded that, was moving slowly by. Souris lost no time. His right arm and the street a cart, leaded that we will stinging impact. Denished the hact of the cart caused Minsulf beneath the measure later Colonal Leader his man amend to the Mar-pression of amazement gradually changed to a sort of marvelling ad-miration. "Maybe I'd have done the miration. "Maybe I'd have done the same thing—for Ireland—but I wouldn't have had the foolish cour-age to come and tell you I had done it!"

Helen walked slowly to the door, but he sprang up, begging her not to go.

"I must. Because even if you don't

"I must. Because even if you don't hate me, what I did proved that we could never be friends—that we must never see each other again—you know that now, don't you?"

Dennis held her eyes with a level gaze and he spoke softly: "Yes, I know it now. But all the years after you've gone from me I'll be thinking of what might have been. Every evening for a month I'd have saked you to meet me at the hillton. And all ning for a month I'd have asked you to meet me at the hilltop. And all through the summer evenings we'd have walked in the hills, side by side, not talking much, wouldn't we have?" Helen nodded speechlessly. "And one evening I'd have put my arm around you—and us walking alone is the mocalight! Then we'd have walked alower and slower and stopped and I'd have said, 'It's an honest and besutiful woman you are—" Helen was crying now, but he continued, "And I'd have said, 'I love you, I love you!' And after we were married we'd he on the farm in County Galway, riding fine horses togeth-

(TO BE CONTINUED)

NGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Algie Hollowell, of Ryland, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their

P. C. H. S. NEWS

Edited by Sara Ward

School, returned to school after a two weeks vacation on January 4. On this day the school observed a

BACK TO SCHOOL

Now that Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays have passed, and we are once again in school, it is time to really study with examinations just around the corner. However, don't think we are not looking forward to Easter because that means another holiday. EXAMINATION SCHEDULE The schedule for examination was announced last week by Superintendent F. T. Johnson. Examinations will begin Friday, January 22. On Friday morning we will have the first period examination, and that afternoon the second period examination. Monday morning we will have the third period examination and that afternoon the fourth period. Tuesday morning we will have the fifth period examination, which is the last one.

NEW CHEER LEADER In the last meeting of the Student Council, Anne Felton from 9-A and Zack White from 10-A were appointed cheer leaders.

Anne and Zack, with all the games have a real job. So here's wishing you the best of luck and hoping you will make the student body of P. C. H. S. more peppy than it has ever been before.

NEW BOOKS IN LIBRARY The Hi-Y Club of the Perquimans County High School sponsored a tag day in the school on Friday November 20, and in the county on Satur-day November 21, for the benefit of P. C. H. S. library. The tags were sold by the Hi-Y girls.

Thirty-two dollars ($32.00) worth of tags were sold. The library had about three dollars collected from fines.

By taking this money we were able to purchase twenty-three new books. These books are here, and have been placed in the library.

The Hi-Y girls appreciate everyone's interest in tag day and hope that you enjoyed boosting your library and will get much pleasure out of reading the new books.

HINY CLUB

The Hi-Y Club of the Perquimans County High School held its regular weekly meeting in the club room. The meeting was called to order by Winslow, Mary Morris, Waverly the president, Sara Ward. Blanche D'Orsay, Clarke Stokes, George Moore Berry had charge of the scrip-

Those present were: Julia Broughton, Margaret Broughton, Marjorie Buck, Anne Felton, Blanche M. Berry, Mary Thad Chappell, Polly Tucker, Celia Blanche Dail, Mary Fields, Catherine Leigh, Jeanette Fields, Eugenia Gregory, Hattie Pearl Nowell, Mary Louise Chappell, Alice Roberson, Nita Newbold, Sara Ward, Nancy Darden, Florence Darden, Marguerite Ward and Miss Elizabeth Knowles, Counselor.

PERSONALS

Hattie Pearl Nowell visited in Savannah, Georgia, during the Christ-

Waverly D'Orsay spent the holidays with her grandmother in Washington, D. C. Miss Elizabeth Knowles, with her father and mother and sisters, Hilda, Dorcas and Grace spent the vacation in Clearwater, Florida. Miss Maud Pridgen, former home economics teacher, spent a week visiting friends in Hertford. Miss Pridgen now teaches in Hendersonville.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Johnson spent Christmas with relatives.

Miss Eloise Scott spent Christmas with her family in Rocky Point. Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Harrell, Patsy Harrell, Mrs. Ella B. Binson and Mr. T. E. Harrell, Sr., of Edenton visited in Orlando, Florida during the holiday seasons. Miss Anne Wilson spent Christmas

Miss Anne Wilson spent Christmas with her family in Lenoir.

Anne Felton spent Christmas in St. Paul's visiting her grandparents. Jeanette Perry spent the holidays in Norfolk visiting friends.

Marjorie Buck visited in Greenville, Kinston and Washington, N. C.

Mattie Hendren, Eula White and Helen Layden, went to Suffolk during the holiday season.

Alice Roberson visited in Petersburg, Va., during the holiday season.

McCoy Phthiaic visited in Norfolk, Va., during the holiday season.

Pred Campen visited in Spartanburg, S. C., during the holiday season.

son.

Addie Ruth Morgan visited in Norfolk during the holiday season.

Marie Anderson visited in Raleigh during the holiday season.

Margaret Mayes visited in Norfolk during the holiday season.

Madeline Lamb visited in Washington, D. C., during the holiday season.

Louise Tarkenton visited in Norfolk during the holiday season.

Kins Esther Evans spent Christmas with her family at Cross Roads.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Holmes and their two children, Katherine Ann and John William, visited in Farm-The students of Perquimans High ville during the holiday season. Rex Gault visited in Spartanburg,

S. C., during the holiday season. Mertice Godsey, a member of the senior class, has moved to Norfolk.

8-A ENJOYS PARTY

The 8-A class enjoyed a delightful party on December 17 at the home of their teacher, Mrs. C. R. Holmes Bingo, Gossip and Going to Jerusalem were played during the evening. Then they gave out gifts. After the are visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cartgifts were distributed their hostess served delicious refreshments.

GLEE CLUB The Glee Club meets every Wed- rell Saturday evening. nesday and Thursday morning in the Club room.

WHO'S WHO AT P. C. H. S. Student Council: Sara Ward, pre-McCoy Phthisic, secretary; Spring, Saturday afternoon. dent: Helen Coffield and James Boyce, representatives from 11-A; George Miller White, representative from 11-B; Fred Campen and Alice Roberson, representatives from 10-A; Annie Mae Mathews and Sybil Layden, representatives from 10-B; Florence Darden and Ben Koonce, representatives from 9-A; Madge Lane and Anne and Zack, with all the games Lucy Mae Lane, representatives we have scheduled, it looks as if you from 9-B; Blanche Cartwright and Louise Morgan, representatives from 9-C: Charke Stokes and Ruth Hendricks, representatives from 8-A: Archie Riddick, representative from 8-B.

Shirley Hurdle from 8-C; Miss Elizabeth Knowles, advisor. Music Club: Hattie Pearl Nowell, president; Dalton Strange, secretary; Mary Louise Chappell, treasurer; Mrs. R. M. Riddick, director.

Class Officers: Senior Class-Hollowell Nixon, president; Maude Keaton, vice president; Hazel Matthews secretary-treasurer. Junior class-A section, Polly Tucker, president; Julia Broughton, secretary. Junior class-B section, Louise Tarkenton president; Winman Spivey, secretary; Elizabeth Elliott, treasurer.

Glee Club: The members of the Glee Club this year are: Marie Anderson, Blanche Moore Berry, Helene Britt, Julia Broughton, Margaret Broughton, Marjorie Buck, Elizabeth Caddy, Mary Thad Chappell, Celia Blanche Dail, Florence Darden, Mary Fields, Anne Felton, Eugenia Gregory, Ruth Hollowell, Maude Keaton, Nita Newbold, Frances Newby, Jeanette Perry, Alice Roberson, Lila Budd Stephens, Dalton Strange, Polly Tucker, Ellie Mae Vhite, Ruth Fields, Jack Anderson, Durwood Reed, Harrell Johnson, Zack White, Miss Kate Blanchard, director. Hi-Y Club: Sara Ward, president; Julit Broughton, vice-president; Hattie Pearl Nowell, secretary-treasurer; Miss Elizabeth Knowles, counselor. Girls' Basketball Captain: Hattie Pearl Nowell.

Boys' Basketball Captain: Eldon

Liquid, Tablets

and FEVER

FIRST DAY Salve, Nose Drops Headaches, 30 min Try "Rub-My-Tism" World's Best Lintman

> Each at ter is rou

Tyrolian 2

VIENNA. folk of the Christmas o

for instance Lord's birth of animals.

wood and el third extrac

wearing of which are b

December h

Christmas

Have

ranches, w to market dining ro day.

TED HUSING, ace sports announcer, says:
"Mine's a hectic life—but my digestion keeps running smoothly. I enjoy Camels with my meels and after." Camels are mild—better for steady smoking.

FOR DIGESTION'S SAKE ... SMOKE CAMELS

* HOGS WANTED

I PAY THE HIGHEST MARKET PRICE FOR HOGS OF ANY SIZE Will Buy Any Quantity

J. D. WARD

TYNER, N. C. Phone Gliden 23 At My Expense *

* MULES

Must Be Sold

Due to the popular demand for 6-cylinder Oliver Tractors, we have on hand several extra good Mules that we will sell at a very low price. Come and make us an offer. - SEE

L. N. HOLLOWELL or A. L. SKINNER FARM EQUIPMENT COMPANY Hertford and Elizabeth City

Damaged Toyt

sufferings with much patience, how-4-H Clubs: Senior and junior class ever, she realized the end was near. club-Marie Anderson, president; She was loved by all who knew her Elizabeth Elliott, secretary; Miss and was especially helpful to those Gladys Hamrick, advisor. Sophomore and freshman Nancy Cooke Darden, vice president; Gladys Hamrick, advisor.

Future Farmers of America: George Miller White, president; Gu-

SNOW HILL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Sawyer and daughter, Barbara Lee, of Old Neck, wright.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eure, George Curtis and Elinor Eure, of White Hat, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Har-

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cartwright, Blanche and Maude Cartwright, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Cartwright, Miss Eunice Harrell, Mrs. Jesse Harrell, Mrs. J. H. Harrell, Mrs. Ralph Harsident; Mae Edla Asbell, vice presi- rell visited Vernon Winslow, of Beech

Miss Beatrice Benton spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Willie Saunders, at Weeksville.

Mrs. J. S. Nurney, of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. Kermit Benton. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wood visited Mrs. Robert Keaton, at Bethel. Mrs. Shelton Harrell has been a the bedside of her brother, Vernon Winslow, of Beech Spring.

Relatives and friends of Vernon Winslow were grieved to learn of his Mr. and Mrs. Odell Cartwright and Mrs. Ralph Harrell were in Elizabeth City Saturday morning.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY E. WHITE

Mrs. Mary E. White, widow of the ate John L. White, aged 68 years, died at her home near Whiteston on Tuesday night, January 5, 1937, at 7:30 o'clock, after a 10 days illness of pneumonia. Hands of loving children and friends did everything pos-in sickness and in need, and she will class be greatly missed by her dear chilclub-Florence Darden, president; dren whom she did so much for. She was a member of Up River Friends Nona Marie Raper, secretary; Miss Church. The funeral services were conducted at 2:00 o'clock on Thursday afternoon at her home by the Rev. Mrs. Elizabeth White, assisted thrie Joliff, vice president; Maynard by Mrs. Bertha Smith White. Misses Fleetwood, secretary; Clyde Lane, Mabel Lane and Winnie Winslow treasurer; Mr. G. C. Buck, advisor. sang very beautifully "There Will Be No Night There" and "Will The Circle Be Unbroken?" at the home, and "Safe In the Arms of Jesus" was sung at the grave. The body was laid to rest in the family cemetery beside her dear husband, who died only five and a half months ago. The pallbearers were her grandsons, Leonard and Bernard Winslow, Irvin, Tommie, Traverse and Clifton White. Much love and respect were shown in the beautiful flowers given by her children, grandchildren and friends. She is survived by the following children: J. Oliver White, of Hertford; Wayland White, of Belvidere; Moody White, of Belvidere; Mrs. Elmer Winslow, Mrs. Jamie Rountree, and Miss Edith White, all of Belvidere; Mrs. Raymond Gregory, of Corapeake; and Mrs. Arnold Winslow, of Elizabeth City. Two step-children, C. O. White, of Hertford, and Mrs.

S. M. Winslow, of Belvidere; 36 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren also survive, as well as two sisters, Mrs. J. C. Baker and Mrs. Julia Ann Stallings, of Belvidere; three brothers, John Stallings, of Newland; Vick Stallings, of Winfall, and Jim Noah Stallings, of Belvidere. Dearest Mother, thou hast left us

O so sad and lonely; It is God who hast bereft us He can all our sorrows heal, The flowers we lay upon your grave, May wither and decay; But fresh and green your memory, Within our hearts shall stay.

Written by her loving daughter; Sallie Rountree.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. sible for her comfort, but the one Divers, Jr., at the Norfolk General who gave to us our dear mother saw Hospital, in Norfolk, Va., on Tuesbest to take her home. She bore her day, January 5, a daughter.

BARREL OF PEPPER

Who wants a barrel of pepper? Well, we have the finest freshly ground Black Pepper at 20c per pound.

ALSO THE BEST QUALITY OF FLAVORING EXTRACTS AND AT BEST PRICES

Roberson's Drug Store

PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST

"On The Corner"

NORTH CAROLINA HERTFORD

ENJOYS CAMELS THE WHOLE DAY THROUGH

WORLD'S CHAMPION SPEED SKATER, Kit Klein, says: "I like to enjoy Camels the whole day through. I rely on Camels 'for digestion's sake' - enjoy them while I'm eating and afterwards."