

Scenes as Chevrolet Workers Return to Their Jobs

Approximately 90 per cent of the 40,000 Chevrolet workers called back to work last week reported at their work benches. Above is shown a group of happy Chevrolet workers as they return to their jobs at the Chevrolet Gear and Axle plant in Detroit, in line with the company's program of giving part-time employment to as many employees as possible in order to keep them off relief rolls. Upper right, some of the workers gathered inside the plant awaiting the shift change which will give them the signal to return to their machines. Lower left, Frank Svatora checks in with a big smile while Walter Frost waits in line behind him to follow suit.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathews Celebrate Their 40th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Mathews celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary on January 27th at their home. The celebration was a very entertaining and enjoyable dinner.

The parlor was warmed by a big log fire in the old colonial fireplace which threw out warmth and cheer over the whole room.

The guests were welcomed at the door by little Misses Marjorie and Christine Matthews, grand daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Mathews and were presented with a shoulder corsage of red sweet peas for the ladies and buttonholes for the gentlemen.

The guests were then ushered to the dining room by Mrs. Wendell Matthews and Mrs. J. B. Basnight.

The table was spread with a lovely white linen cloth and had as a centerpiece a beautiful white wedding cake trimmed in ruby colored decoration topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Tall red tapers burned in silver candle holders on either side of the cake. Each guest found his place by dainty little red and white place cards.

The dinner consisted of two courses. The first was a turkey and ham plate with hot biscuits and coffee, and the second fruit cake and raspberry jelly topped with whipped cream and cherries.

After dinner all the guests assembled in the parlor, where a number of games and contests were carried out. Miss Anne Adkinson of Norfolk was the winner of both prizes. Mrs. Matthews brought out a number of pictures of Mr. Matthews and herself taken before their marriage and showed her mother's bible which registered their marriage January 27th, 1897.

Before leaving the guests were taken to the living room, where each one cut the wedding cake and were served punch by Mrs. Basnight.

Mrs. W. D. Hunter cut the thimble, Miss Marjorie cut the dime and Mr. Mathews cut the penny.

Those present were Alton Matthews, Miss Ann Adkinson and Mrs. T. J. Hewitt of Norfolk, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dall of Edenton, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Matthews, Miss Marjorie Matthews, Miss Christine Matthews, Fred Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matthews, Tammill Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Basnight, Lloyd Matthews, Glenn Matthews and Gus host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Matthews of Bangor.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts, and through the mail received many cards of congratulation and good wishes from distant relatives and relatives who were unable to attend although unable to be present to enjoy with them the celebration.

Mrs. Matthews before her marriage, was Miss Amanda Hobbs of Gates County. Mr. Matthews is a native of this county and except for a short while in school in Gates County has made his home in Perquimans.

P. C. H. S. TEAMS LOSE TO AHOSKIE

Both Boys' and Girls' Teams Will Tackle Central High's Aggregations Friday Night

The Perquimans High School basketball teams lost two games to the Ahoskie basketball team on their court Tuesday night.

The boys' game proved to be a real thriller, requiring an extra period to break a 19-19 deadlock.

At the beginning of the game the Perquimans Indians took a small lead and at the end of the first half had a six point lead, when Nixon, the Indians' star forward, was put out of the game on fouls. With only two seconds to go Ahoskie sunk two free tosses to tie the score 19 all.

Campen, the regular Indian guard, was also put out on fouls as the game ended.

In the play-off the Ahoskie quint sunk two more foul shots taking the game 21 to 19.

In the girls' game the Indians were swamped by a hard fighting sextet of Ahoskie girls. Fouls were called right and left in both games.

This week the boys' team will tangle with the Woodrow Wilson J. V's. The Indians will be without the services of Campen, who has an infected foot.

On Friday both Indian teams will journey over to Central High School to play their return games with the teams there.

An Announcement

I have just returned from the Furniture Exposition, where I purchased a huge stock of furniture buyers' and household needs. Goods are now arriving daily. Don't get excited about the high prices, for we intend to keep them down.

THE OLIVER ROW-CROP "70"

Finger-Tip Control—For An Easier—Quicker Job

Sit in the comfortable new spring-and-hammock seat of the new Row Crop "70"—and every control is right at your finger tips. You have automotive type steering and gear shifting! "Steering-braking" assures short turns. The brakes also operate from the heel, for quick action and powerful leverage. Fully enclosed and streamlined, the "70" is as easy to handle as an automobile.

You'll want to come in and see this new 6-cylinder tractor at once. There are two "70's"—one designed to get greater economy out of regular gasoline—and the other especially built for kerosene or distillate. Both have great power with light weight. Both are smooth and easy-running—with greater speed. You'll get the work done quicker—with more spare time for other things. See the "70's"—with a complete line of mounted listing, busting, planting and cultivating equipment.
