Dixieland Minstrels At High School On Friday

After two very successful performances at Elizabeth City The Dixieland Minstrel will be presented Friday night at the Perquimans High School at 8 o'clock.

At both performances in Elizabeth City people had to be turned down at the door due to the large crowds.

This makes the third consecutive year that this minstrel has been given in Hertford.

The following is a program for the minstrel.

Bill Cox is the intercomuter this year and his end men are Earl Jennings, Charles Lane, Oscar Commander and Guy Ambrose.

The opening song "Sing Baby Sing" is sung by the entire company.

"The Japanese Sandman," an old favorite, is given by Peggy Chesson and a chorus of six.

Kathryn Jenkins and Griffin give a good interpretation of "When A Lady Meets a Gentleman Down South."

One of the recent song hits "Chapel In the Moonlight" is done in great style by Sallie Dixon and an effective choir.

Lovely Julia Fearing gives a popular rendition of an old hit, "I'm in the Mood for Love." After this comes the year's top notch swing tune "Organ Grinders Swing" with vocal interpretation by Carolyn Hill, assisted by a number of swingsters.

Virginia Lee Commander and Elwood Weatherly do their part singing "Me and the Moon," after which, Gibbs Liverman does a good job singing "Wedding of Jack and Jill" with a chorus of twenty.

From the picture of the same name Carolyn Dickens gives her version of "Pennies From Heaven," after which Julia Fearing gives the "Military Man," a very neat number.

At this time Mary Simpson and Tommy Miller do a bit of singing and dancing.

"Empty Saddles" is given by Shirley Jones and Syble Liverman and a number of cowboys.

Elizabeth Ray Ives gives a swell rendition of "One Two Button Your Shoe," assisted by a chorus.

One of this year's tip top songs "De Lovely," is given by Shirley Perry.

The old favorite that is still tops "Alice Blue Gown," is given by Jeanne Munden and Jimmy Foreman, assisted by a large chorus.

Martha Pinner and Jack Stevenson do a bit of vocalizing, singing "Little Gypsy Tea Room" a very fine number.

Mary Simpson returns to give her version of one of the best swing tunes "Doing the Suzi-Q."

A very impressive number "Mickey Mouse's Birthday Party," is then presented with all the famous Mickey Mouse folks in the act.

"Ala-lama Barbecue" is given by Earl Jennings and the end men.

Louise Warren and her chorus of pirates do "I'm The Captain's Kid."

And with the singing of "San Francisco" by the entire cast the curtain falls.

Approximately 100 take part in the chorus and give a mighty fine performance.

Country Doctor's 3000 Grown-up 'Babies' Meet In New Screen Drama

Surprise follows dramatic surprise, romantic secrets are revealed and tangled lives set straight when the Country Doctor's 3,000 grown-up "babies" come back to share their joys and tears with the man who brought them into the world in "Reunion," Twentieth Century-Fox's latest screen triumph, coming Monday and Tuesday to The State Theatre.

The picture which stars the world famous Dionne Quins and features Jean Heraholt, Bechelle Hudson, Helen Vinson, Slim Summerville, Robert Kent, John Qualen, Dorothy Peterson and many other players, boasts the year's most important cast in the season's most unusual drama.

The Quin's Dr. Luke, played by Jean Heraholt, on the verge of retirement from the burdens he has carried for a generation, decides to call back from all over the globe the three thousand men and women whom he has assisted into the world. From all over the country and from many foreign lands they come, the rich and the poor, the high-placed and the lowly, to take part in the reunion.

Also joining the party is attractive young Dr. Tony Luke, the doctor's nephew, whom he has called back to the little Canadian town from his post in Toronto to carry on with his (Dr. Luke's) duties. Tony, though deeply in love with Mary, Dr. Luke's nurse is followed by the wife of his superior in the Toronto hospital, who refuses to release him to a younger and fresher love.

In a climatic scene that combines all the elements of potent drama with pathos and uproarious humor, Dr. Luke, Tony, Mary, Mrs. Sheridan, and the Doctor's 3,000 grown-up "babies"—including the governor of a state, a fading stage star, a crook just out of jail, and many other unforgettable characters—convene for the reunion. Also present at the gathering, for added chuckles and heart tugs, are the celebrated Quintuplets.

You'll grin and gulp by turns as the old doctor, under cover of a pompous speech by a government dignitary, straightens out the problems of Tony, Mrs. Sheridan and the jealousy-torn Mary, of the governor and his unacknowledged little waif of a son, of the actress and her girlhood flame.
