Gladys Swarthout and Fred MacMurray—two gorgeous sweethearts in the merry, romantic medley of Sweet and Swing! Hilarious with Jack Oakie's fun! Thrilling with the new dances of Veloz and Yolanda! Sparkling with four grand new songs, "The Champagne Waltz" is another swell show that will appear at the State Theatre Thursday and Friday of this week.

A thrilling adventure tale of two gun action and hoof pounding drama, Bob Allen's starring picture, "The Unknown Ranger," will be shown Saturday, April 17, at the State Theatre. Martha Tibbetts is featured in the film as Allen's love interest with Harry Woods as the big bad villain; Hal Taliferro sings a number of old time favorites and "Buzzy" Henry gives a special parcel of laughs and heart throbs. "The Unknown Ranger" promises to be good.

Alano Dass, world's foremost mentalist, will be a special added stage attraction at the State beginning Monday. He is internationally known for his unusual predictions and will appear matinee and night for the entire week beginning Monday.

Alano Dass calls you by name and answers all questions regarding business, love affairs, whether to buy, borrow or sell, or anything you may want to know.

A jewel robbery, an excellent mystery story and gay music supplied in the Martha Raye manner are contained in "Hideaway Girl," the gay musical mystery which is shown Monday and Tuesday, April 19 and 20. Others in the cast are Shirley Ross, Robert Cummings and Monroe Owsley.

You who liked the rugged backgrounds and red-blooded action of the starring pictures such as "Sunrise," and "Daniel Boone" are going to revel in the awe-inspiring timberland scenes and fast tempo of "Park Avenue Logger" which plays Wednesday. "In the early episodes they try to make a Park Avenue Social slay of me, but I finally break away to the big outdoors of The Lumber Company and things begin to happen," says George O'Brien.
