BIBLE THOUGHT FOR WEEK

UNIVERSAL LOVE: There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.—Galatians 3:28.

PEEDING IN HERTFORD MUST BE STOPPED

It is our belief that it is not going to be necessary to sacrifice the life of a child to the Demon Speed in Hertford in order to put a stop to speeding on the streets of the town. The entire citizenship of the Town is with Mayor Wredbee in his stand to stop the excessive speeding on our streets.

"INASMUCH AS YE HAVE DONE IT INTO ONE OF THE LEAST OF THESE" The women of the Parent - Teacher Association of the Hertford Grammar School went about doing good this year, making the blind to see, giving strength to the weak.

Entertain At Dance At Community House Misses Alice Roberson and Anna Tullis Felton entertained a number of their young friends at a delightful dance at the Community House on Friday night.

HOPEWELL NEWS

Miss Kathryn Fleetwood, accompanied by her room mate, Miss Nida Roberson, students at E. C. T. C., spent the week-end at the Fleetwoods. Mrs. Mary Hayman, Miss Frances Fleetwood and little Miss Jayne Griffin went to Greenville Saturday.

State Theatre News

I hope every one enjoyed "Maytime" and "When You're in Love", both recently shown at the State, as much as I did. Man the Lifeboats! Run up the storm signals! "Ginger Jane" is in the Navy now, as the rollicking star of "The Holy Terror," the Twentieth Century-Fox riot of fun opening Friday at the State Theatre.

Richard Arlen is starred in the outdoor action drama, with Virginia Grey in the feminine lead, and a cast that includes Jack Mulhall, Norman Willis, Sid Taylor, Russell Hicks, Willie Fung and Maude Allen. Adventures action, sizzling suspense and red-blooded romance are deftly mingled in a thrill-teeming tale that thunders to a crashing climax when ruthless racketeers raid the range to hunt down a runaway bride.

On Monday and Tuesday we have "Fifty Roads to Town," and they are all snowbound. In the picture is a gangster who wants to make a certain cabin his hide-out, and the sheriff, who is after him, and the sheriff's wife, who is after him. Also in this cabin are two nice young people, Don Ameche and Ann Southern, marooned by a blizzard, with only a stuffed moose head as chaperone and a can of caviar between them, and how they hated caviar!
