

WHAT'S WHAT ABOUT
SOCIAL SECURITY

As another service to its readers, The Perquimans Weekly each week will give authoritative answers to questions on the Social Security Law. By special arrangement with Mr. George N. Adams in Rocky Mount, N. C., the Social Security Board has consented to pass on the accuracy of answers to questions on Social Security, which may be asked by employers, employees, and others, through The Perquimans Weekly. Address inquiries to the Editor. Answers will be given here in the order in which questions are received. This is an informational service and is not legal advice or service. In keeping with Social Security Board policy names will not be published.

Question: I am a school teacher and have taught in North Carolina ever since I was 19 years old. I am or was 65 years old March 29, 1937. Will you advise whether I am eligible for the Old-Age Pension and how to get it?

Answer: The Social Security Act does not provide for old-age "pension." By "pension" it is assumed you mean old-age assistance. The old-age assistance provisions of the Social Security Act is based on a Federal-State cooperative plan and is administered solely by the State and local government units. For your information, the last session of the North Carolina legislature availed itself to participate in this Federal-State cooperative plan of old-age assistance and passed a law that is administered by the State and county welfare departments. For detailed information relative to those who are eligible under this law, you should consult your local county welfare department.

Question: I am a retired farmer 76 years old and by reason of the infirmities of age I have no income or adequate means of support. Under the Social Security Act am I entitled to a benefit?

Answer: Because of your age you are not covered by Title II the old-age benefits provision of the Social Security Act. However, under Title I of the Social Security Act provision is made for a Federal-State cooperative program for aid to the needy aged who are 65 years of age and older. The recent session of the North Carolina legislature passed an act availing itself of this cooperative program. This program is administered solely by the State and local units of the welfare departments. It is suggested that you consult your local county welfare department for information concerning your eligibility.

The Snapshot Guild

HOW UNUSUAL!

A picture snapped from inside the house and through a window often proves to be a fascinating bit of work.

IT'S almost unbelievable but it is true that many amateur snapshotters have the notion that it is only the unusual that is worthwhile snapping. When they travel, a camera is taken along to get pictures of new scenes and new faces but they use it around their homes only on special occasions.

"But," you may say, "I've already made good snaps around the house. What else is there to shoot?"

Nobody can answer that question for you directly. But it's dollars to doughnuts that there are dozens of untouched picture possibilities. And all of them interesting as the ones already in your album.

The secret of finding them is simply a matter of keeping your eyes open. Get the habit of looking at things—everything—as though you had never seen them before. It's amazing the way this habit will sharpen your interest—now dulled by sheer familiarity—in even the most commonplace things.

Some of the finest pieces of photographic art have been results of appreciative eyes in the heads of stay-at-homes. The pattern of sun and shade on the front steps, the
