FILM FORECAST—STATE THEATRE

Friday only—"Easy Living."

The three appear in "Roarin' Lead," with a cast that tri-stars Robert Livingston, Ray Corrigan, and Terhune. Playing opposite the leads is Christine Maple, formerly of the Follies. Others include Hooper, Atchley, Geo. Chesebro and Newt Kirby.

Three Mesquiteers return from adventures to inspect the affairs of the Sam Clark estate of which they are trustees. They find the Cattle-men's Protective Association and Children's Orphanage, sponsored by the late Clark, on the verge of bankruptcy because of cattle rustling which involved heavy insurance payments. In fact the orphanage managed by Doris is being closed and a group of country housewives and their husbands are on hand adopting children right and left.

Monday and Tuesday—"Broadway Melody of 1938."

Robert Taylor and Eleanor Powell co-star. With them are George Murphy, Binnie Barnes, Buddy Ebsen, Sophie Tucker, Judy Garland, Charles Igor Gorin, Raymond Walburn, Robert Benchley, Willie Howard, Charles Grapewin, Robert Wildhack and a chorus of lovely dancing girls.

Roy Del Ruth directed the picture, which was produced by Jack Cummings. Dave Gould, who won the Academy Award for his direction of dancing, was in charge of the chorus and the elaborate musical score is the work of Nacio Herb Brown and Arthur Freed.

The songs are assured hits. Eleanor Powell and Murphy have a number "I'm Feeling Like a Million," which imparts that sensation to the audience. Gorin sings "Sun Showers" and Taylor joins Miss Powell in "You and Mine." Miss Powell offers "Pair of New Shoes" and then appears with Murphy and Ebsen in "Follow in My Footsteps."

Wednesday only—"Super Sleuth."

Ann Sothern and Jack Oakie, co-star in "Super-Sleuth," share the perils which beset them when Oakie, a screen sleuth who essays playing detective in real life, is trapped in a chamber of horrors by a maniac night with Mrs. George Roach.

killer, who seeks to end his activities. The RKO Radio picture is a mystery-comedy-melodrama combination, with a background of picture-making in the screen capital.

Thursday only—"Gow." Captain Edward A. Salisbury is the producer, and is the only white man who ever attended a cannibal feast and lived to tell it. He will be in person on the stage.

SPORT NEWS OF PERQUIMANS H. S.

By DOX DIXON

The Perquimans football team will play Rich Square this afternoon in an attempt to put themselves in the winning column again. The team has not won a game in three years, but a hopeful and ambitious squad will go on the field in an effort to redeem its past record. Rich Square, having won a game from Roanoke Rapids, is looking for a victory over the local boys.

It was rumored at the beginning of school that there would be no football at P. C. H. S. this year, but upon the arrival of Bob Bates, the new coach, the rumor changed from that to one of maybe a winning team. The '37 edition of the Indians will be the heaviest and fastest in three years. The team's weight will average between 150 and 155 pounds. The center will probably be Bill Fields, a veteran of three years of defeat, who with many other boys, is determined to win. The line will probably come from these boys: Paul Tucker, Zach Harris, Percy "Toar" Byrum, Charles White, Richard Spivey, Watt Winslow, David Broughton, and Billy Arnold. All of these boys except Spivey and Arnold have had a year's experience. The backfield will probably be Fred Campen at fullback, Rex Gault and Mac White playing halfback, and Dox Nixon at quarterback. Gault will do most of the passing, while Nixon will do the majority of the kicking.

A definite schedule has not yet been arranged, but the Indians will probably play three or four more games, having already contacted Providence High, Norfolk, Va., and Columbia High, which will be played on the home field.

SCHOOL CHILDREN GET FREE PASSES FOR STATE FAIR

Governor Personally Invites Students to Attend Exhibition

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15

Plenty of Amusement
And Educational Features on Hand

Superintendent F. T. Johnson, of Perquimans schools, announced today that he had received free tickets to the North Carolina State Fair to be held in Raleigh October 12-16 for distribution to all of Perquimans County's 1,200 children in the public schools. He will distribute the tickets next week.

On each complimentary ticket is a personal invitation from Governor Hoey for all of the State's school children to attend the fair on Friday, October 15, the day set aside especially for Tar Heel youngsters. There are no strings attached to the offer, and the youngsters may attend the fair with or without their teachers.

Governor Hoey has joined Dr. J. S. Dorton, of Shelby, manager of the State exposition, in expressing the urgent hope that as many children as possible take advantage of the free visit to their fair.

"No fair is complete unless children have an opportunity to see the exhibits and enjoy the entertainment features," declared Manager Dorton. "For that reason we are making it possible for every boy and girl in North Carolina to be special guests at the fair. We want to see the midway full of youngsters on Friday of fair week."

In addition to the imposing array of agricultural exhibits, the children will find much to entertain them. The gigantic World of Mirth, with 22 high class shows and 18 novelty rides, will be on the midway. Fifteen thrilling hippodrome acts will be presented in the grandstand arena in the afternoon and night, and each evening "The Revue of Tomorrow," sparkling musical comedy, will give a colorful program, topped by a brilliant display of fireworks.
