

"The Weekly High School Exposure"

Hertford Defeated By Rich Square

By Bill Cox
The Perquimans Indians journeyed down to meet the Rich Square eleven Friday. Rich Square received first kick-off. By superior blocking and running, Rich Square made three touch-downs during the first half of the game.
Determined that this was not their best, the Hertford boys came back with a strong and more sturdy defense, holding Rich Square with only one touch-down during the last half of the game. In the last few minutes of the last quarter Mac White crossed the Rich Square goal line for the first touch-down of the season.
This was Rich Square's third game this year, while it was Hertford's first. After seeing some action, we are sure that the Indians will win their next game.

JOKES

But Still Hoping
Every year teachers pop the routine question to the freshmen:
Miss Knowles: "Betty, why did you come to high school?"
Betty L.: "I came to be with, but I ain't yet."

And So It Goes

Anne F.: "She told me you told her that secret I told you not to tell her."
Margaret E.: "The mean thing! I told her not to tell you I told her."
Anne F.: "Well, I promised her I wouldn't tell you she told me, so don't you tell her I told you."

Round Up

"Would you give us ten cents to help the Old Ladies' Home?"
"What! Are they out again?"
Mr. Bates: "D. J., how many bones have you in your body?"
D. J. White: "I don't know, sir."
Mr. Bates: "But you were told yesterday."
D. J.: "Yes, sir, but I had fish for breakfast."

Florence D.: "What can I do to have soft, beautiful hands?"
Beautician: "Nothing, Madame, and do it all day long."

Mrs. Barbee: "Darius, has not fortune ever knocked at your door?"
Darius: "He did once, but I was out. Ever since he has sent his daughter."
Mrs. Barbee: "His daughter, who is she?"
Darius: "Why, misfortune, of course."

Miss Evans: "With the single stroke of a brush, Joshua Reynolds could change the smiling face to a frowning face."
Nita N.: "So can my mother."

Francis N.: "I'm a little stiff from bowling."
Mr. Bates: "I don't care where you're from! Get on the field!"

Zach H.: "Do they have the 4th of July in England?"
Miss Relfe: "No, of course not."
Zach: "Then what comes after July 3?"

Mrs. Barbee: "Bill, which is the pine that has the sharpest needles?"
Bill Cox: "The porcupine."

Mrs. Newbold: "Jean, why are you making faces at that bull-dog?"
Jean: "Well, mother, he started it."

Dentist: "What kind of filling do you want in your teeth?"
Boy: "Chocolate."

"What does the bride think when she walks into the church?"
"Aisle, Altar, Hymn."

Mr. Johnson: "How do you like school?"
Pat H.: "I like it closed, sir."

"She is a woman who has gone through a great deal for her belief."
"Indeed! What is her belief?"
"She believes she can wear a No. 5 shoe on a No. 7 foot."

Girl Scouts Meet

Patrol 1 of the Girl Scouts held a social meeting Friday night with Adalia Winslow. The evening was spent with passing the tenderfoot tests. The Promise and Laws were given individually, and the knots were practiced, Pat Edwards teaching the sheep shank. Several girls told stories of their pets, after which a general discussion of how to treat the flag was held. Several good daily deeds were mentioned.
An apple relay and spin the bottle contests proved lots of fun. The hostess served hot chocolate and wafers.

Several robins flew in the open window of a North Side hospital in Chicago and upset the patients for an hour before being evicted.

Howdy, Folks!

As you know, people, this is the first issue of The Perquimans Weekly containing a page of Perquimans County High School news. We are glad to have the honor to publish this page and we hope we will have the cooperation of all the student body.

I want to give Marguerite Ward the honor of naming our school paper, which is, as you all know, "The Weekly Exposure." Do not think for one moment, however, that we will publish all we know about the students in this school. For one reason it would be impossible to write all we know; furthermore, we would not want to embarrass any pupil here, and certainly, we do not want to say anything about the faculty.
MAE WOOD PIERCE.

GOSSIP

By Margaret Broughton
Alice Roberson can't decide whether she wants to get her candy from Jackson's Candy Company or Harris' store.

Marjorie Buck always drives to Tyner when her daddy takes her out to teach her.

Ruth Winslow always goes to see Marguerite Ward when the sun is shining so she can sit in her (Marguerite's) lawn chairs facing Front Street, where Clarke Stokes lives.

Betty Lordy was eager to move on Front Street so she would be living in the same neighborhood with Billy Blanchard and Francis Nixon.

Nancy Darden was glad for school to get out Friday afternoon, so she would be on her way to Norfolk with Darius Elliott.

Dox Nixon got home safe Friday from the football game which takes a load off Anne Felton's mind.

In an argument over the best kind of cars, Miss Scott always takes up for Chevrolets.

Miss Knowles has already started preparing to go to Durham to see the football game (she says).

The reason Julia Broughton did not drop Home Ec like the rest of the girls in her crowd was that she wanted to go to Agric and Home Ec parties with George Baker.

Just turn Mac White's car loose and it always travels right down Front Street and the horn always automatically blows at Florence Darden's home. The funny part of it is that he never knows a thing about it.

Why is it that Ruth Hollowell is so fond of the name "Bill"?

We Wonder Why

By Florence Darden
Katherine Leigh likes to read Mac and Tillie so much.

Marjorie Buck likes Riddick's cleaning and pressing shop.

Glenn Mathews likes Walker's drug store so much.

Ruth Winslow enjoyed the Beers-Jarnes circus.

Mac White doesn't take his own advice about two-timing people.

Ann Felton is learning how to sew. Pat Edwards had so many grapes this fall.

Zach Harris likes to go to Roberson's drug store.

Iola Dale doesn't like one session. Nancy Darden likes to work at Darden's on Saturday.

Ruth Hollowell likes to eat at Mrs. Ellie White's so much. Pat Edwards stays home every Saturday night.

Zach White and Florence had such an unusually good time at Zach's last dance.

Wanted—Girls to Play Basketball

By Mary Onella Relfe
All the girls interested in playing basketball are asked to be out for practice Monday. This is to be the first practice of the year and a number of girls are wanted. We need girls with vim, vigor and pep, who are willing to work a little and have some fun, too. So all girls interested in this phase of work please apply to Mary Onella Relfe, Perquimans County High School, Monday, October 18.

PERSONALS

By Anne Felton
Superintendent F. T. Johnson was called to Rose Hill on Monday to be at the bedside of his brother, who is critically ill. The student body is wishing for his quick recovery.

CIRCLES MEET JOINTLY
The members of the Hertford Missionary Circles were guests of the Winfall Circles, at their regular monthly meeting, Tuesday evening at the church.

A very interesting program was given, with the following members taking part: Mrs. Jesse Stanton, Mrs. J. V. Roache, Miss Alma Leggett and Miss Lucille Long. A quartet, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," was sung by Mrs. W. J. Lowe, Mrs. W. F. Morgan, Mrs. A. R. Winslow, Jr., and Mrs. Raymond Stanton. A poem by Mrs. W. F. Morgan was read. The meeting closed with a prayer.
Hot chocolate and cakes were served during the social hour.

Joint Hostesses In Honor Recent Bride

Mrs. Y. L. Brown, who before her recent marriage was Miss Hazel Ainsley, was honoree at a delightful miscellaneous shower on Thursday night when Misses Catherine Britt, Ruby Keaton and Marian Rape and Mrs. Crafton Mathews entertained at the home of the latter.

The attractive home of Mrs. Mathews was appropriately decorated with brilliant fall flowers, and in the dining room a lovely bride's cake, on which was arranged a miniature bride and groom, occupied the center of the dining table. When the cake was cut, after the guests had been entertained with novel games, many guests were found to have cut various miscellaneous articles, Marian Rape the heart, Mrs. Brown the owl, Mrs. Crafton Mathews the car, Katherine Britt the frying pan, Mrs. Z. A. Harris the thimble, Helene Britt the button, Bertha Chappell the pipe, Mrs. G. R. Tucker the doll, Mrs. Claude Williams the ring, and Mrs. Willie Ainsley the dice.

The honoree was presented with lovely gifts by the following: Mesdames Crafton Mathews, M. J. Gregory, B. F. Ainsley, G. R. Tucker, Martin Towe, Z. A. Harris, Francis Nixon, C. C. Banks, C. C.
