

WHAT'S WHAT ABOUT SOCIAL SECURITY

As another service to its readers, The Perquimans Weekly each week will give authoritative answers to questions on the Social Security Law. By special arrangement with Mr. George N. Adams in Rocky Mount, N. C., the Social Security Board has consented to pass on the accuracy of answers to questions on Social Security, which may be asked by employers, employees, and others, through The Perquimans Weekly. Address inquiries to the Editor. Answers will be given here in the order in which questions are received. This is an informational service and is not legal advice or service. In keeping with Social Security Board policy names will not be published.

Question: How much does the Social Security Board charge for filing a claim?

Answer: The Social Security Board does not charge for filing claims. If you feel that there is money due you under the old-age insurance provisions of the Social Security Act, consult your nearest Social Security Board Field Office, where you will receive every assistance at no cost to you.

Question: Where should I apply for unemployment compensation?

Answer: You should apply at the unemployment compensation commission in your State if you think you are entitled to unemployment compensation benefits. However, not all states are paying unemployment compensation benefits now. All the states in this region, which comprises North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia, will begin paying benefits under their respective state unemployment compensation laws in January this year.

Question: I am 63 years of age and have lost my job. Can I draw any unemployment compensation benefits in North Carolina?

Answer: The fact that you are 63 years of age does not constitute a factor in determining whether you are entitled to receive unemployment compensation benefits. Before a person can receive unemployment compensation benefits it is necessary that he register with the state employment service. If, after waiting a certain period of time, depending upon the state law, he is unable to get another job, he is entitled to unemployment compensation benefits, providing his employment was covered by the state law.

Question: I go to school in the daytime and clerk in a drug store during the evenings, and get paid wages. Should I get a Social Security account number and report it to my employer?

Answer: You should. Part-time employment is not excepted from the provisions of the Social Security Act. Your employer should deduct one percent of your wages when and as paid and pay one percent himself to the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

THE QUEEN TAKES LUNCHEON

BABY still rules the household—but she allows the family much more freedom than formerly. Under the old regime, mother and often the family gave up all sorts of gay vacations—in order to remain near the markets and dairies which supplied the young ruler with food. But times have changed. One of the leading food manufacturers has selected all the fruits and vegetables most favored for the royal diet, strained and cooked them and presented them in tins—no more quite so many varieties as the fifty-seven prepared for grown-ups, but quite enough to please baby.

And now—the whole family goes vacationing. They pack up the cans of royal food—or buy them along the way—and take to the highway, the air, or the sea, as they wish. The Queen shows here is having a bit of lunch out on the breeze-swept deck of the Santa Paula—all the foods she favors when home.

Ships also are catering to this royal persona. They've provided shaded play places where she and her court can amuse themselves with blocks and dolls and toys; beach decks where they can sun themselves and plop rubber sea monsters into the pool; special dining rooms with motherly stewardesses in attendance. It's a gay life for the baby and a much less restricted one for the family.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving memory of a dearly beloved husband, son and brother, Vernon Franklin Winslow, who fell asleep one year ago, January 10, 1937.

One year has passed since that sad day

When one we loved was called away To dwell with God and angels fair— Some day we hope to meet him there.

Long days and nights he suffered pain, We waited cure, but all in vain 'Til God Himself knew what was best And took him home and gave him rest.

It is lonely here without you, dear, And so sad along life's way Life does not seem the same to us Since you were called away.

Often on our lips is spoken Thy sweet name we still hold dear It shall always be a token Of cherished memories of by-gone years.

Gone is his life with all its usefulness To a better world on high. Keep him, dear Lord, till we reach the golden shore, Then let us have him to love once more. —Sadly missed by wife and family.
