THE WEEK'S BIBLE THOUGHT

MAN'S HUMBLE ORIGINS And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living soul.—Gen. 2:7.

A WISE CHOICE

Fitted by training as well as by temperament for the peculiar duties of the office, Judge James S. Mc-Nider will fill with credit the position of Judge of the Recorder's Court of

If those who are inclined to feel that the position is of no great importance and might, therefore, be filled by any good citizen, would re-flect on the far-reaching effects of decisions made in the little county court as week after week matters of seemingly small import are threshed out, they might, perhaps realize the urgent necessity that the judge who presides over even this small court, even as any judge, should possess certain indispensible qualifications.

IT'S LINCOLN WE'RE TALKING ABOUT

The subject may be dangerous, but no names will be used, so-today in the City of Washington there stands a magnificent memorial to one of our greatest men. It might seem strange that one who so loved the simplicity of life, who was in himself the embodiment of all things unaffected and unpretending, should have such a Brinn, from near Elizabeth City, and splendid edifice erected to his memory. Yet it is entirely fitting, for the eauty and strength of the pure marble is surely an appropriate tribute to the simplicity of his own spirit and the power of his mind. Within the memorial he sits at rest, gazing with kindly contemplation beyond the wide portals, beyond the very city itself. He did not ask to be placed there, he had no thought of marble statues, no thought of elaborate structures. He hoped that perhaps a few would remember, him well, and for the rest whild he lived he said simply "I do the very best I know how, the very best I can and I mean to keep doing so until the end." He asked only to serve, which all Rotarians view as real septiment.

WHAT'S WHAT ABOUT SOCIAL SECURITY m individual is deemed to be partially memployed if the wages he has re-ceived in any week are leas than 6-5 of the weekly hernfit amount to which he should be entitled if totally unemployed and eligible. Roughly, the unemployment compensation of a partially-unemployed wags carmer will equal the difference between the full time benefits to which he would be entitled were he totally unemploy-ed and 8-6 of his remuneration for that week. Detailed information on this point should be neured from your local unemployment compensa-tion office. individual is deemed to be paytially your local u tion office.
