Mother-Daughter Banquet Success

Twelve Agricultural Department Boys Assist By Serving

A gala occasion was the Mother-Daughter banquet given by the members of the home economics department of the Perquimans High School on Thursday night in honor of the mothers of the young girls, under the supervision of their teacher, Mrs. Helen Harrell.

There wasn't a dull moment, from the time the guests took their places at the banquet table, which was decorated with flowers in tasteful arrangement, until the affair was over.

Miss Julia Broughton was toastmistress and presided with poise and dignity. Marie Anderson, soprano, sang "That Wonderful Mother of Mine." "To the Mothers" was the first toast, given by Nellie Butler, to which Mrs. T. C. Perry responded.

Miss Eloise Scott responded to the toast "To the Teachers," offered by Elizabeth Elliott, after which there was a chorus. Miss Katherine Jessup sang a solo "Mother Machre." Miss Helene Britt gave the toast "To the Second Year Girls," to which Elizabeth Caddy responded, and this was followed by a dance number by Evelyn White. Miss Sarah Elliott gave a reading, "Mother" was sung by Nita Newbold and chorus, and Shirley Elliott sang a solo, the program closing with The Girls' Creed, said in unison by the students.

The menu consisted of fruit cup, chicken salad, sliced tomatoes, potato chips, deviled eggs, pickle, stuffed celery, sandwiches, orange fruit cake, salted nuts and iced tea.

Twelve boys of the Agriculture Department served the banquet.

Elizabeth Nowell, Reginald Morgan Married Tuesday

A wedding of interest throughout the Albemarle took place Tuesday morning, April 19, when Miss Elizabeth Nowell, of Winfall, became the bride of Reginald Morgan Munden, of Elizabeth City.

The wedding was solemnized at Cedar Grove Methodist Church at 11 o'clock in the morning, with the pastor, Rev. W. G. Lowe, officiating, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with Easter lilies, spirea and other white flowers against a background of palms and ferns, and was lighted by cathedral candles.

With Mrs. Roscoe Miller White, of Norfolk, Va., at the organ, the following pre-nuptial music was rendered: "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life," "The Bells of St. Mary's" and "O Perfect Love." Mrs. White wore navy marquisette, with petal pink accessories, her flowers being a corsage of valley lilies and snapdragons.

Miss Hattie Pearl Nowell, a sister of the bride, sang "At Dawning." Miss Nowell wore powder blue lace over taffeta, with matching accessories, her flowers being yellow roses.

L. W. Anderson sang "I Love You Truly."

The Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin," by Wagner, was used as a processional, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as a recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a three-piece travel suit of navy blue wool challis, with trimming of dusty rose. She wore navy accessories. Her powers were a shoulder corsage of orchids and valley lilies.

Miss Ruth Adelaide Nowell, the bride's sister, who was her only attendant, wore a navy marquisette dress, with trimming of dusty rose and matching accessories. Her flowers were pink roses.

Miss Willie Mears, of Norfolk, Va., who lighted the candles, wore a dress of beige lace, with harmonizing accessories. Her flowers were pink roses.

Mrs. Joseph Nowell, the bride's mother, wore navy blue, with matching accessories, her flowers being a corsage of American Beauty roses.

The bridegroom had as his best man Walter Nowell, of Winfall.

The ushers were T. B. Chase, of Norfolk, Va., and Elwood Nowell, of Winfall.

After the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Washington, Baltimore, and other points, and upon their return will reside in Elizabeth City.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nowell, of Winfall. She is a graduate of the Perquimans High School and of Marshall's School of Beauty Culture in Norfolk, Va., where for the past two years she has served as head instructor. The bridegroom is a prominent young business man of Elizabeth City, connected with the firm of A. Ray Sawyer Feed Company.

Immediately following the marriage a two-course luncheon was served at the beautiful country home of the bride's parents. The spacious rooms were artistically decorated with spring flowers. The many useful and beautiful gifts displayed attested to the popularity of the young couple.

Assisting Mrs. Nowell as hostesses were Mrs. Luther Nixon, of Winfall and Mrs. Clarence Twine, of Norfolk.

Those present at the luncheon included: Mr. and Mrs. George Winslow and daughter, Ruby, Mrs. Roscoe M. White, Mrs. Betty White, Mrs. Clarence Twine and T. B. Chase, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. L. C. Williams, of Portsmouth, Va.; Eugene White and two sons, Eugene, Jr., and Morris, and daughter, Mary Ellen, of Northwest, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Corprew, of Camden; Mr. and Mrs. A. Ray Sawyer and son, Billy, and daughter, Elizabeth, and Mrs. Ray Sawyer, Jr., of Elizabeth City; Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and two sons, Bryan and Elmer Miller, Miss Maywood Pierce and George Miller White, of Hertford; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Anderson and Mrs. L. Jay Winslow, of Belvidere; Rev. W. G. Lowe, Mrs. John Lane and daughter, Nomie Lou, Mrs. Luther Nixon, Elwood Nowell, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nowell, Miss Ruth Adelaide Nowell, Miss Hattie Pearl Nowell, Walter Nowell and Joseph Nowell, of Winfall.

Have you a young minded mother?

Then give her QUAKER STOCKINGS

Mother may never openly confess to the positive thrill in the way Quaker stockings wear and fit. Yet, observe how she likes to wear them. That, she will tell you, is because they wear so well. And they do. Here are three numbers she will like especially.

No. 100	No. 189	No. 400
Stretch Top. Pliant to strains and stresses. Ringless, serviceable.	3 Thread crepe. Volle. Sheer but very serviceable. Lace welt and well reinforced.	Crepe Majestic. Combines four thread beauty with five thread service.
