FILM FORECAST AT STATE THEATRE
HERTFORD, N. C.

Tuesday only—"Lord Jeff"

"Lord Jeff," dramatic story of the training of boys for Britain's future Merchant Marine, introduces Freddie Bartholomew and Mickey Rooney, companions in "Captains Courageous" and "The Devil is a Sissy," in entertaining new characterizations at the State Theatre.

Freddie portrays a boy, represented as a scion of nobility by crooks, who finds regeneration and a new destiny when sent to the English training school, part of the Barnardo Homes institution in England. Mickey is a student petty officer, first Freddie's Nemesis, later his friend. Sam Wood, who directed "Navy Blue and Gold," directed the new picture with rare skill.

The desperate fight between the two boys, the great boat race, the mast-climbing contests and other nautical school thrills mingle with human and dramatic touches. Settings authentic and elaborate.

Players, aside from several hundred boys playing students, include Charles Coburn, Herbert Mundin, Gale Sondergaard, Terry Kilburn, Peter Lawford, Walter Tetley, and others.

Thursday only—"My Bill"

Heralded as giving Kay Francis the most human appealing role in her career, the Warner Bros. picture "My Bill," based on Tom Barry's stage play, "Courage," open at the State Theatre today with a cast that also includes Bonita Granville, Anita Louise, Bobby Jordan, John Litel and Dickie Moore.

The role played by the star marks a radical departure for her, since it is designed to enlist the audience's sympathetic appreciation rather than to impress with the glamour of personality.

It is that of a woman nearing middle age but still young and beautiful in appearance who has been left a widow with four children in a small New England town and has proceeded carelessly to dissipate the small fortune left her by her husband.

This simple and moving tale was turned into a beautiful screen play, full of tenderness and spiritual bravery, by Vincent Sherman and Robertson White, and the production was directed with a fine understanding of its human value by John Farrow.
