

FILM FORECAST AT STATE THEATRE

HERTFORD, N. C.

Judy Garland, Mickey Rooney, Ann Rutherford, Lana Turner in "Love Finds Andy Hardy"

Monday and Tuesday—"Love Finds Andy Hardy."

Mickey Rooney now answers to the name, "Speed Demon." The boy actor's latest interest is a racing car which he expects to do better than a hundred miles an hour.

Mickey recently purchased an old flivver. With the help of fellow-actor Don Castle, who appears with him in "Love Finds Andy Hardy," at the State Theatre Monday and Tuesday, he hopped up the motor and streamlined the body so that the car did ninety-seven miles per hour on its first test at Muroc Dry Lake.

They are now working on the car for the second run in which they feel sure they'll do more than a hundred miles per hour. The youthful players take turns driving the car, with Mickey slated to drive in the coming test.

Lewis Stone, Judy Garland, Cecilia Parker and Fay Holden have featured roles in "Love Finds Andy Hardy," which was directed by George B. Seitz.

Chewing The Rag

With Lucius Blanchard, Jr.

A prominent local matron is very angry at us because her name was not mentioned in the society columns after she made a recent trip. We're sorry, of course, but the truth of the matter is, we didn't know she had been on a trip.

Our telephone number is still 88, when we pay the phone bill, and the society editor is on duty all day every Tuesday and Wednesday. The offended lady could have helped us avoid the omission simply by giving the office a ring. It's no easy job to ferret out every item of interest without cooperation from the people who make news.

The Perquimans Weekly is anxious to print every one of our happenings of local interest. We do not attempt to cover national spot news—the big dailies take care of that—but it is our intention to publish Hertford and Perquimans County news. In short, our aim is to be a good country weekly. Our county correspondents do a good job keeping us posted on all social activities throughout their respective communities. How about a little cooperation from the townspeople?

A voice over the telephone summoned Officer C. E. Walker Thursday morning to come to Market Street. "There's a big wreck in front of my house," the officer understood the voice to say.

Gathering all the speed at his command, Mr. Walker hastened to the scene, picturing a catastrophe of cataclysmic proportions; dead, drying and injured littering the street amid the wreckage of a major auto accident. He found death there, but it was a big dead rat. That's what the voice, Mrs. E. T. Jillson's had said: "There's a big rat in front of my house," not wreck.

The rodent had been deceased for some time and the smell was becoming highly unpleasant.

Joy to the Truck Driver

A lorry driver became weary of his work and gave it up to join the police force.

Asked some months later what he thought of his new job, the ex-driver replied the pay was good, the hours satisfactory, but what he liked best of all was that the customer was always wrong.

Beware of fair-weather friends, of nearthey are not worth having around.

Your nerves need a rest every now and then...
