Miss Edith Everett Weds Melvin Wright

The wedding of Miss Edith Lavinia Everett, of Hertford, and Melvin Forbes Wright, of Elizabeth City, was solemnized in the Hertford Baptist Church at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning, November 2, with the pastor of the church, the Rev. J. F. Stegall, officiating, using the beautiful ring ceremony.

The church was attractively decorated for the occasion with a beautiful arrangement of white chrysanthemums in tall baskets against a background of trailing ivy, interspersed with palms and ferns, and was lighted by numerous cathedral candles.

Mrs. J. E. White, of Hertford, presided at the organ, playing several appropriate selections, using the Bridal Chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" as a processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as a recessional. Mrs. White wore a blue dress with matching accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of pink Killarney roses.

The bridegroom had as his best man, William T. Culpepper, Jr., of Elizabeth City. The ushers included Lindsay Hopkins, of Ahoskie; Morgan Walker, of Hertford; Sanford Aydlette and Willis Wright, Jr., of Elizabeth City.

Miss Marian Raper, of Hertford, and Miss Ethelyn Everett, of Edenton, lighted the candles. Miss Raper wore a dress of rose silk crepe, with brown accessories. Her flowers were Talisman roses, worn as a shoulder corsage. Miss Everett wore a dress of teal blue crepe, with black accessories. Her flowers were a duplicate of Miss Raper's bouquet.

Miss Blanche Everett, only sister of the bride, was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. Miss Everett wore a dress of grey sheer wool with dubonnet accessories, and carried an arm bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was lovely in a three-piece costume of Boy Blue woolen material, with hat, gloves and shoes of grey. She also wore a gold locket, a gift of the bridegroom. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of Easter lilies.

Immediately after the ceremony, which was attended by a large gathering of friends of the young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Wright left for a motor trip to Florida. Upon their return they will live in Elizabeth City.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Everett, of Hertford, and is very popular with a wide circle of friends. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis S. Wright, of Elizabeth City, and is a prominent young business man of that place.

The bride has been extensively entertained, both in Hertford and in Elizabeth City, since the announcement of her engagement in the early fall, the last affair given being a reception which followed the rehearsal of the wedding, on Tuesday night, given by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cannon, at their home here in Hertford, and which was attended by a number of the friends of the couple from Elizabeth City and Hertford.
