

FAYETTEVILLE GROUP STRIKES OUT 'SHORT OF WAR' PHRASE IN RESOLUTION

First to Advocate Man Power Assistance For Hard Pressed Allies in Great War

The "Short of War" phrase has been stricken from at least one resolution pledging full support to the President in every effort to look into adequate defenses of America, and urged that prompt and effective action be taken to "mobilize immediately and make available all the manpower and material resources of our nation; to render immediate aid to the Allies by sending all possible materials, supplies and equipment not needed for present and future defense of America; and to prevent the shipment of all materials and supplies to any aggressor nation, either directly or through neutral nations."

The resolution was made Monday at a mass meeting in Fayetteville where citizens let it be known that they will support all measures intended "to provide for the common defense" and to discourage the efforts of "any person or organization which would tend to hamper the defense of true Americanism."

The meeting, presided over by Mayor H. C. Blackwell, former State Commander of the American Legion, went further than requested by its committee and instructed that the phrase "Short of War" be omitted from the description of aid to the Allies.

The "Short of War" qualification has been used to a large extent whenever aid to the Allies is mentioned.

Alabama Visitors See Atlantic Ocean First Time On Hertford Trip

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bush of Dothan, Alabama, and C. A. Bush and son and Miss Virginia Adkinson of Andalusia, Alabama, have returned to their homes after spending a week here with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bush. The trip to North Carolina resulted in their first glimpse of the Atlantic Ocean. From inland country, Mr. and Mrs. Bush had never gotten around to visiting the coastland until they visited in Hertford. They took full advantage of their trip to Coastal Carolina by seeing Nags Head and Roanoke Island in this State and Virginia Beach in Virginia.

Coastal Carolina, they said, provides quite a contrast to inland Alabama. Mrs. S. E. Bush is the former Miss Virginia Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Fowler.

EXTENSION NOTES

By FRANCES MANESS
Home Demonstration Agent

The Leaders School last Wednesday on Refinishing Furniture was a very interesting one. It was conducted by Miss Pauline Gordon, Extension specialist in Home Management and House Furnishings. Each leader brought a piece of furniture to refinish. These leaders will be expected to help give the demonstration at the July meetings.

The next 4-H Club radio broadcast will be on Saturday, June 22, at 10:15 o'clock. This program will be given by the Hertford grammar 4-H Club and the subject will be "4-H Camps."

The schedule for next weeks is as follows:
Wednesday, June 26 — Burgess Home Demonstration Club will meet with Mrs. Louis Proctor.

Navy Continues To Expand Program

With the present authorized expansion of the Navy to 170,000, training facilities are now proceeding at a full time pace to fit the many thousands of young men being enlisted so that they may become proficient in the many trades required in the operation of modern Fleet.

The Navy Department issues Navy Training Courses to personnel in order that the development of individual skill and efficiency may be speeded up. These courses are not designed, however, to replace experience as the primary teacher. They contain material covering the basic principles of the special training required, and also, where necessary, general educational subjects such as elementary mathematics, physics, grammar, etc. The courses now issued are divided into two general classes as follows:

1. Rating Courses—A rating course is intended to cover the exact requirements of the rating for which it is written. It brings together, in compact and convenient form, the information that will enable a man to meet the requirements for his rating, as prescribed by the Navy Department.

2. General Courses—These courses cover such subjects as diesel engines, pumps, generators, compasses and piloting, storage batteries, seamanship, shorthand, etc. Each of the general technical courses now supplied by the Navy Department is closely related to the work in some branch of the Naval service and is intended to promote the efficiency and advancement of men in some Naval rating. The man who is willing to supplement the experience gained in his daily work by systematic study usually succeeds.

Navy training courses are issued without charge to enlisted men through their commanding officer. Study is carried on under the direction of officers on board ships and stations and all necessary assistance is furnished men who wish to improve themselves by this means.

MORE ABOUT VICTIM

The Norfolk Southern Railroad Wednesday morning and interment was in the Jordan Burial Ground, near Ryland, Chowan County, Wednesday afternoon. Services at the grave were conducted by the Rev. John T. Byrum.

Norfolk newspapers, reporting the death, said the former Hertford restaurant operator, popular manager of a restaurant at Lafayette Boulevard and Cottage Toll Road in Norfolk, was slain by a 32-calibre bullet fired from the cafe doorway by one of four unidentified men who immediately fled from the scene in an automobile driven by a fifth member who had kept the motor running.

A motive for the killing is lacking, Norfolk police said. Apparently robbery was not intended; the proprietor was counting the day's receipts and Mr. Sanidas was sweeping near the door when the shooting took place.

As far as could be learned, no one had been apprehended in connection with the slaying late Wednesday afternoon.

The restaurant Mr. Sanidas operated in Hertford several years ago... was housed in a frame building where the M. J. Gregory 5-10-25 Cent Store now stands.

The late Stokes Walters then operated the establishment for some time after Mr. Sanidas went to Norfolk. Later the building saw service as a cleaning and pressing establishment and was finally torn down to make way for the modern brick building.

Survivors of Mr. Sanidas include besides his widow and their four children, several brothers and sisters and relatives in Greece.

Salmon Dishes For Summer

By Katherine Fisher

Director, Good Housekeeping Institute

It's always a good idea to have a can or two of salmon on your pantry shelves. Then when menu ideas fall you, or time is short, or your budget staggering under food bills, salmon will save the day! Few dishes are easier on the budget and offer more in healthful food values than the easily-prepared, delicious recipes we give you below.

All-in-One Salad

(Tested by Good Housekeeping Institute)

Use Institute-approved measuring cups and spoons. Measure level.

- |                                   |                                     |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1 head lettuce                    | 1/2 c. mustard pickle               |
| 1 No. 8 can string beans, drained | 1 peeled garlic head, finely minced |
| 2 tomatoes                        | 1/4 c. salad oil                    |
| 2 c. sliced cooked potatoes       | 1/4 tsp. granulated sugar           |
| 1 c. mayonnaise                   | 1/2 c. vinegar                      |
| 1 peeled purple onion, sliced     | 1/2 tsp. salt                       |
| 1 sliced hard-boiled egg, sliced  | Few grains pepper                   |

Break up the thoroughly washed lettuce and arrange in the salad bowl. Arrange alternate layers of the string beans, tomatoes cut in eighths, the potatoes, onion, onion, and egg. Beat together the remaining ingredients with a fork, add to salad and toss well. Serve at once.

Salmon Mousse

(Tested by Good Housekeeping Institute)

Use Institute-approved measuring cups and spoons. Measure level.

- |                                |                       |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1 1/2 lbs. fresh salmon fillet | 1 1/2 tsp. salt       |
| 1/2 c. cream, whipped          | 1/2 c. cream, whipped |

Combine sugar, salt and mustard in top of double boiler; add vinegar and egg with white stirring. Cook over boiling water until of custard consistency, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, then stir in gelatin, which has been softened for 5 min. in the cold water. Add hot water. Chill until slightly thickened, then add 1 c. of the salmon liquid and the onion, and fold in the whipped cream. Place decorative olive slices and green peas in bottom of 8-cup mold; then lay salmon fillet over mold. Chill until firm, then unmold on a platter. Place remaining salmon fillet around it. Serve at once.

Salmon and Cheese Casserole

(Tested by Good Housekeeping Institute)

Use Institute-approved measuring cups and spoons. Measure level.

- |                                   |  |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| 1 1/2 c. scalded milk             | 1/2 c. grated American cheese          |
| 1/2 c. evaporated milk            | 1/2 tsp. salt                          |
| 1/2 c. water, scalded             | 1/2 tsp. pepper                        |
| 1 c. soft bread crumbs            | 1 egg, well beaten                     |
| 1/2 c. melted butter or margarine | 1 c. drained cooked or canned tomatoes |
| 1 c. chopped onion                | 1/2 c. (2 c.) salmon fillet            |
| 1/2 c. chopped onion              | 1/2 c. (2 c.) salmon fillet            |

Pour the scalded milk over the bread crumbs. Add butter, salt, pepper, onion, water, and cheese mixture. Stir well. Then add the well-beaten egg. Put the vegetables and fish in a greased 1 1/2 qt. casserole. Pour the milk and cheese mixture over them. Bake in a pan of water at 350° F. for 30 min. in a moderate oven of 350° F. until done—about 45 to 50 min.
