EXTENSION NOTES

By FRANCES MANESS
Home Demonstration Agent

In the recent District Health Contest held in Tarboro, Sara Elizabeth Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Elliott, of Chapanoke, was winner. Her final score was 98. We feel very proud that we have the Health Queen from the Northeastern District. Sara Elizabeth will attend the 4-H Short Course in Raleigh in July and will enter the State Health Contest.

Reservations for 4-H Camp are coming in very slow. I'm sure it is not because our members are not interested. Reservations must be made by June 29th.

Instead of having community meetings of our 4-H Clubs as I had planned, we are going to have county wide meetings. At the one meeting we have had our attendance was small due to the work on the farm.

Our first county meeting will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Agricultural Building. An interesting program will be arranged for the afternoon. I am urging that all 4-H Club members and 4-H leaders be present.

Announcements have been sent out about our tour to Williamsburg. I hope that if you are interested you will send in your reply as early as possible.

Schedule for next week:

Monday, July 1—Chapanoke Club will meet with Mrs. John Asbell.

Tuesday, July 2—Beech Spring Club will meet with Mrs. Noah Felton.

Wednesday, July 3—Durants Neck Club will meet at the Community House.

Thursday, July 4—Helen Gaither Club will meet with Mrs. W. O. Hunter.

Friday, July 5—Bethel Club will meet with Mrs. J. C. Hobbs.
