

No Figures On Red Cross Refugee Fund At Hand This Week

There is no news on the Red Cross Drive for War Refugees this week. The chairman of the local chapter is out of town, so the figures are not available.

At the last checkup (at noon last Wednesday) the total amounted to "about one hundred dollars" or approximately one-sixth of the minimum quota set for this county.

There is no house-to-house canvass in Perquimans County, but contributions are being received at the Post Office by Silas M. Whedbee, chairman of the local chapter, by the Rev. R. F. Munns, pastor of the Hertford Methodist Church, and by the Rev. E. T. Jillson, rector of Holy Trinity Church.

MORE ABOUT TOWN BOARD

at R. S. Jordan's Electrical Appliance Store, was selected to fill the position at the municipal plant vacated by Willie Ainsley, who was moved up to take over Benton Britt's job who has replaced R. N. Hines, who resigned as town engineer to move to Kings Mountain. Mr. Long was selected, Mayor Darden said Tuesday, because of his experience in electrical work and so that he can pinch-hit in the electrical department in emergencies.

Against slight opposition from one member, the board elected to extend a week's salary to Mr. Hines in lieu of his vacation which did not materialize when he took the Kings Mountain position. The vote in favor of giving Mr. Hines the week's salary was unanimous.
