

School Faculties Are Now Complete

Jimmie McCallum, Colerain Man, Is Elected Band Instructor

All Perquimans County school facilities are now complete for the year 1940-41, according to Superintendent F. T. Johnson, head of the county school system.

He announced Wednesday that Jimmie McCallum, of Colerain, has been elected to fill the post of band instructor for Perquimans Schools this year.

Mr. McCallum has taught band music at Colerain, but gave up his work there last year to enter a private business. A native of Scotland County, the new director was highly recommended to the school board by C. L. McCullers, director of the Edenton High School band.

He will teach band music at both the high school and the Hertford Grammar School, spending two days in Hertford each week. There are approximately 30 members of the high school band.

Bus Station Work

Scheduled to open for business on the first of the month, the new bus station at Grubb and Church Streets is being equipped with plumbing facilities. The walls and ceiling have been painted, but it has not been learned who will be the agent. W. H. Bartlett, Elizabeth City contractor, is doing the construction work.

Delayed By Flood

Flood waters Wednesday had delayed the return to Hertford of Mrs. J. W. Zachary, who is visiting her parents in Yadkin. Yadkin County was one of those hard hit by flooded rivers due to unprecedented rainfall in the mountains last week.

Leaving For Milwaukee

Jesse Parker Perry, Irvin Nixon and Eldon Winslow are leaving within the week for Wisconsin to enter the Milwaukee School of Engineering. They are planning to take a three-month course in welding and then work in aircraft construction, which industry requires the services of those trained in welding.

LANES HAVE GUESTS

Mrs. A. F. Hobson, of New York, has been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie T. Lane. Mr. Hobson and their daughter, Dorothy, arrived from New York Wednesday morning to spend the week. Other guests at the Lane home Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Garrett, of Elizabeth City, who had dinner there.

BRIDGE CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. C. R. Holmes delightfully entertained her bridge club on Thursday evening. Two tables were arranged for playing. After several progressions Miss Mary Sumner was presented high score prize and the floating prize. Mrs. G. W. Barbee received prize for low score.

Those playing were: Mrs. D. F. Reed, Mrs. Henry Clay Stokes, Mrs. T. L. Jessup, Mrs. S. M. Whedbee, Mrs. G. W. Barbee, Mrs. R. M. Riddick, Miss Mary Sumner and the hostess.

Mrs. Holmes served delicious refreshments at the close of the game.

HONORING MRS. HARRELL

Mrs. J. H. Harrell was very graciously entertained on Sunday by her children at the home of Mrs. W. H. Cartwright, Hertford, Route No. 3. Summer flowers and potted plants were effectively used to make the home even more attractive. Dinner was served picnic-style on a long table on the lawn. A large birthday cake centered the table which was loaded with a large assortment of edibles.

After dinner, games were enjoyed by the younger people, while those not so young talked over old times. Ice cream was served during the afternoon.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harrell, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Louis Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harrell, Jr., Loy Harrell, Miss Novella Harrell, Anne, Billy and Jacqueline Rae Harrell, all of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harrell, Earl Simpson, Jr., and Mrs. George Eure, Eleanor Eure and Curtis Eure, of White Hat; Mr. and Mrs.
