High score prize was won by Miss Grace Knowles, low went to Mrs. Nixon.

and Miss Newby received the floating prize. Miss Fowler was presented a lovely gift.

A dainty tea course was served by the hostess.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

Miss Frances Fowler, whose wedding to R. S. Monds took place on Saturday, was complimented at an informal party Friday evening immediately after the rehearsal, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whedbee.

Vari-colored summer flowers were effectively used in the living room, where Mr. and Mrs. Whedbee received, and where Mrs. J. P. Perry presided over the guests' register.

Miss Jocelyn Whedbee directed the guests to the library, where Miss Mary Sumner presided over the punch bowl.

In the library and dining room a color scheme of white and green was attractively carried out.

The dining table was covered with an exquisite hand-made lace cloth, centered with an arrangement of shasta daisies, flanked by tall candles in silver holders. The three-tiered wedding cake was arranged at the end of the table, and the knife for cutting the cake had a miniature bridal bouquet tied to the handle.

Bridal ices and mints, in white and green, were served with the wedding cake.

Small Brother—Mr. Golden, are you a baseball player?

Mr. Golden—No, Willie, I'm not. I know very little about the game.

Willie—Then why did Sis tell Ma that you were such a good catch?
