BIBLE THOUGHT FOR WEEK

IT COMES TO THIS: Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep the commandments; for this is the whole duty of man.-Eccl. 12:13.

Pile It High

This week is being observed as National Aluminum Week in ever county in the United States . . . a drive for scrap aluminum is on and the collection will be used to aid in national defense.

After the old aluminum has been collected and melted down, the metal will be used for the making of airplane parts and the like. A serious shortage of this metal has occurred and there is definite need for every available piece of scrap aluminum.

This week an "Aluminum Bin" was constructed on the Courthouse Green in Hertford and all aluminum collected in the county will be placed in this bin . . . now this is a drive that everybody can have a part in by bringing that old dishpan to the "bin" and giving it a toss for national defense.

several times . . . surely there is to." One of the most heartening enough scrap and thrown-away aluminum in the county for that . . . the freedom is the willingness with which drive lasts until July 29, so remember to bring your aluminum to the bin in Hertford.

Why War Destroyed Peace

The war in the East continues, with Germany reporting breakthroughs and Moscow asserting the contrary.

No man knows what is happening, except that men are being slaughtered. The clatter of machines and the clash of mechanized armies may capture the imagination but it is human beings who are doing the dying.

That mankind has no better way to settle its differences is a reproaca to all peoples including those of us who live in the United States.

It is ours to admit that this republic refused to take any steps to line-up with peaceful nations in a plan to prevent war by making it a crime, punishable by concerted action of powerful, peace-loving peo-

To say that - the United States worked for peace, during the early twenties and thirties, because we foolishly disarmed and swallowed a lot of bunk about nations never using war as an instrument of national policy, is merely to remind us that, like the British and French, we were sucked in by aggressive, self-seeking

It is foolish to talk of peace unless one is willing to serve, if necessary, as a soldier of peace. It is idle to sign non-aggression pacts if one is not ready to do something about enforcing non-aggression pacts. It is absurd to disarm without being twilling to cooperate in the defense of the disarmed, if they are threatened by sudden might.

Peace is possible in the world only if those who want peace possess the power to enforce it. To leave peace to the mercy and decision of nations that worship the gods of war is as foolish as possible and yet that is what the democracies of the world did. Today they are paying the price of folly.

Age Of Responsibility

The young men whose draft numbers have just been drawn from the famous "goldfish bowl" in Washington have "come of age" in a way known to few preceding generations of Americans. Never has the responsibility which twenty-one years imply been so broad as in this year

Millions of young men today know what it is to feel responsible for the welfare and security of their country even to the extent of pledging all their private hopes to it. They have had to postpone careers in which many of them had already made considerable investments. Some have had to interrupt their education. All know that in the event of grim necessity even their lives are pledged.

These sacrifices apell responsibility as too many Americans who passed have antique furniture.

HEY, LOOK BEHIND YOU

twenty-one long ago have not yet learned to spell it. For a large section of the American public the emergency which the United States faces has meant only an increase in the amount of money available for new cars, refrigerators, radios.

No one begrudges some increase of purchasing power where it has too long been inadequate. But there are signs, in the markets and elsewhere, that numerous Americans have yet to come of age in the sense of matching the responsibilities undertaken this olds. Mr. Knudsen's report on the continuance of a short work week in the copper mining industry only illustrates how tardily Americans are awaking to the fact of an unlimited national emergency.

DEFENSE BOND

Q. What happens if I suddenly need the money I put into a Defense Savings Bond?

A. You can cash your Bond at any time, after 60 days, for full amount paid, plus any interest due

Do many Bond owners cash their Bonds?

A. No. People want to help America against all attacks. In many J. C. Hobbs. cases, people are putting every cent they can spare into Defense Bonds and Stamps. Some are doing this by asking employers or banks to withhold part of their salaries in order to buy these Bonds or Stamps for
