More bicycle riders were killed in North Carolina the first seven months of this year than were killed 4. Learners should ride in a park during the entire twelve months of last year, the Highway Safety Division reported this week.

bicycle riders met with death on the streets and highways of this state hicle. from January through July of this pear, an 80 per cent increase over the 14 cyclists killed the first seven months of 1940 and a 25 per cent increase over the total of 20 cyclists killed all last year. A majority of the riders killed were boys, and most of them were killed because of violations of the rules of safe riding.

Warning that bicycles are classed as vehicles under the State law, and in good condition. that cyclists must obey the same ply to motor vehicles, Ronald Hocutt, cycle fatality every week will be director of the Highway Safety Divistopped in North Carolina," Hocutt sion, listed the following 12 rules said.

for bicycling with complete safety:
1. Refrain from "clever" or 'stunt' riding.

2. Dismount and wark across dangerous intersections. 8. Keep to the right and close to the edge of the roadway.

5. Ride without wobbling; avoid 6. Say "No" to anyone desiring to
