FARMERS HAVE BIG JOB IN NATIONAL DEFENSE

Washington, D. C.—"Farmers can take 'efficient production' as a watchword," says Chester C. Davis, Commissioner in Charge of the Agricultural Division, National Defense Advisory Commission, in a recent article in The Fertilizer Review telling what immediate action farmers can take in our national emergency.

CHESTER C. DAVIS

"Efficient production means applying farming practices that will get the highest yields from the fewest acres. It means lowering production costs and at the same time improving quality and increasing volume," states Mr. Davis.

"It means exercising far-seeing care in conserving the fertility of the soil by practices which not only prevent waste of fertility but help to restore it."
