MISS JOYCE STOKES HONORED AT TEA

Many Hertford people and a number of out-of-town guests were delightfully entertained on Friday afternoon by Miss Sarah Brinn at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Brinn, at an informal tea given in honor of Miss Joyce Stokes, whose marriage will take place on January 13 to First Sergeant Rufus M. Riddick, now of Greenville, S. C.

The lower floor of the home was artistically decorated with holiday evergreens and tall red candles carrying out the New Year motif.

At the door Mrs. R. T. Brinn welcomed the guests, who were greeted in the living room by Miss Stokes, Miss Sarah Brinn, Mrs. H. C. Stokes and Mrs. R. M. Riddick.

The Bride's Book, in which more than seventy-five names were inscribed, was presided over by Miss Nancy Darden.

In the living room, where many red candles added festive cheer, Mrs. T. P. Brinn was assisted in pouring tea by Mrs. M. G. Brown, of Edenton, and the Misses Dorcas and Grace Knowles.

MISS STOKES HONOREE AT BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. Henry Clay Sullivan charmingly entertained at a bridge party on Monday evening complimenting Miss Joyce Stokes, whose marriage to M. Serg. Marion Riddick will take place next week.
