Notice To All Milk Customers

In order to conform with the recent ruling of the Food Administrator, we must stop the delivery of milk in all but quart bottles.

We hope to make satisfactory arrangements with our customers regarding this ruling, and will discuss our new delivery system with you as soon as possible.

Also, this ruling demands that we collect a deposit for each bottle delivered. Therefore, a deposit of a cent per bottle will be required to be returned to you at the time of delivery. It will be a minimum unnecessary deposit. If you have a spare bottle, please bring it out with you when you come to get your milk.
