Home Demonstration Agent

Now is the time to make plans for next summer and winter food supply. Ask yourself these questions: Am I planting enough vegetables to supply my family during the summer months? Am I planting enough to have a surplus to can a winter supply. Do I have a sufficient supply of canning equipment?

Below is the suggested canning budget for one person. Use this to make up a budget for your family.

Vegetables
Asparagus, 1 qt.; string beans, 5 qt.; lima beans, 4 qt.; beets, 2 qt.; carrots, 1 qt.; corn, 2 qt.; okra, 1 qt.; peas, (May) 4 qt.; soup mixture, 6qt.; tomatoes, 12 qt.

Fruits
Apples, 3 qt.; blackberries, 3 qt.; dew berries, 2 qt.; huckleberries, 2 qt.; cherries 1 qt.; grapes, 2 qt.; peaches, 4 qt.; pears, 4 qt.; plums, 2 qt.

Each person should have 10 quarts of meat; 10 pounds of dried vegetables and 8 pounds of dried fruits.

4-H Clubs

Special chapel programs were given in each school in the county during 4-H Mobilization Week, February 6-14. The purpose of this program was to enroll every boy and girl of 4-H Club age in a Victory project that will help directly in our Nation's Victory program. There were 322 boys and girls who enrolled in the all-out for victory program.

The month of February is Record Month for the 4-H Club members. They have collected and turned in 178 pounds of old victrola records. These records will be shipped to Charlotte to be used in making recordings to be sent to Army camps.

canal did, manifestly, fulfill one mission. They kept much of America's air and sea power in the Pacific tied up for six months. That time was invaluable to Tokyo in its essential task of organizing and exploiting the tremendous treasure of war materials in the Dutch Indies and other sections of Nippon's conquests. Americans should not laugh too loudly at Tokyo's explanation. Only if they made better use of those six months—building planes and ships which will reduce the enemy's bases at a far faster rate—can they feel and elation.—Christian Science Monitor.

Mom

"Sausages for breakfast! Sausages for breakfast! I can smell 'em!" Small Joe came tumbling downstairs fastening the belt of his shorts as he came. He made a bottle line for the kitchen. Pop was already sitting at the table, reading the paper, while Mom held the handle of the frying-pan over the stove. Small Joe came close and sniffed the delicious smoke, wriggling all over with early-morning joy.

"Better be thankful for them while you can still get them." One glance at Mom's face told small Joe this was one of her tight-lipped days. "Not a drop of coffee in the house, and no sugar left to put in it if there was. Some war!" Small Joe kept still.

"Letter for you, son," Pop said in his quiet voice. Small Joe made a leap for his place at table. There it was, a private personal letter for him alone, propped against his milk glass.

"Hey, Pop! It's from brother!" Small Joe was pulling the envelope apart and diving into the contents.

"Hey, look what he sent me." He passed over an oblong of thick, crinkly paper while he leaned over the sheet of writing-paper.

"A twenty-five dollar War Bond," Pop said slowly. Mom turned and looked at it over Pop's shoulder, with the frying-pan in her hand.

"Listen what he says. 'How are you doing, kid? Hurry and grow up so you can help me slap the Japs. Aren't you most big enough to get into the Army? Here's something for you in your name. Let's the whole family gang up and help to win this war.'"

Pop and Mom were silent. But small Joe didn't notice that. He was full of his letter and his War Bond.

"Gee, Pop, in six years I could get into the Army, couldn't I, Pop? Gee, Pop, I want to be a soldier like brother and fight in this war. Gee, isn't that bond nifty? Look, it was issued in Honolulu. It's mine."

But Pop was looking at Mom and Mom was looking at Pop. There were tears in Mom's eyes. She shook her head sharply. Pop reached out and patted her hand gently.

"Well, can't let our soldier boy beat us to buying War Bonds, can we, old lady?" was all he said.

She shook her head again. "I guess if he can give up his job and go off to war I can do some fighting back at home," she said in a queer voice. Small Joe looked up at her in surprise. She saw him looking at her and spoke sharply. "Well, Joe, we're about ready to eat. Say grace."

Small Joe folded his hands and bent his head as he had been taught. "Oh Lord, we thank thee for this food and all thy bountiful gifts..."

"Amen," Pop said.

"Amen," Mom said. "Now eat your good sausages."

(Story from an actual report in the files of the Treasury Department.)

Amen: Say yes. Take your change in War Stamps. The least you can do is the most you can buy in War Bonds. U. S. Treasury Department by a radio announcement and by the black wardens in each sector.

BLUE

The warning of blue will always follow the red. One long blast for two minutes will be given on sirens. This will continue the mobilization of the defense forces and also the black-out, but will permit traffic to move as heretofore under the red and lights. Pedestrians also may travel on streets. This warning is a safeguard against the return of the enemy planes. If after 10 minutes, the planes fail to reappear, the "All-Clear" will be given.

Point Rationing Information

The consumer's declaration: The fact that a person has stocks of canned goods to declare at registration time does not mean that person is a hoarder.

Neither is the removal of stamps for these stocks a penalty. Procedure merely evens up supply and gives every one an equal start.

Some complaints being made by people who think they have to give up cans over five. Be sure they understand, they merely have to declare. They give up stamps for all cans over 5—on the cans.

The "freeze" period—No shoppers should be inconvenienced during the "freeze" period (from February 21 to March 1.) Allowance of five cans per person for which no stamps will be deducted, plus supplies of fresh fruits and vegetables, should provide ample food during the week.

Additional posting required—In addition to the official table of point values which must be displayed, every store must also post point values in one of the following ways—on the shelf, counter, bin or rack where the item is displayed, or else on the container itself.

Air Raid Signals

For the benefit of Perquimans citizens, and in the hope that they will familiarize themselves with the color code and audible signals for air raid warnings which went into effect at 12:01 a. m. Wednesday, the local Civilian Defense Corps requested The Weekly to reprint the new set-up, which follows:

BLUE

One continuous blast for two minutes duration on sirens. This is a mobilization and black-out order, but traffic may continue to move with restricted lights (low beam, or parking lights). Pedestrians may also use streets, but buildings and street lights blackout.

RED

Four short blasts (two shorts, a pause of 10 seconds, and two more blasts). This is an "all-out blackout."

WHITE

No signals to be used. This is an "All-Clear." Public notice will be given by turning on street

IN THE ARMY BOMBER SQUADRONS

they say:

"LAYING THE EGGS" for dropping the bombs
"BROWNE OFF" for bored
"PIECE OF CAKE" for an easy job
"CAMEL" for the Army man's favorite cigarette

FIRST IN THE SERVICE

With men in the Army, Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard, the favorite cigarette is Camel. (Based on actual sales records in Post Exchanges and Canteens.)

IT'S CAMELS FOR ME...THEY'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES!

YOU BET! THEY'RE PLENTY MILD... AND PACKED WITH FLAVOR

ANNOUNCER:

"The less you drive, the more your car needs regular service—to save your gasoline! Just listen—everybody knows what the choke on a car is for. The choke makes the gasoline mixture richer, acts as an aid to quicker starting, when sparingly used. But did you know that a dirty air cleaner on your car will act as a choke all the time, keeping the gasoline mixture richer than it should be, by not using the proper proportion of air? That waste of gasoline can really cut into your gasoline allowance, and keeps you from getting all the miles you are entitled to. So don't put up with it. See your Pure Oil dealer for regular air cleaner service. He knows just how to clean and re-install the particular type of air cleaner on your car. It doesn't cost much to get this service—and it doesn't take long."
