ENTRENCHED EVIL WILL FALL: And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from Heaven. —Luke 10:18.

Allied Air Power Supreme

News from various theatres of warfare indicate that our enemies are losing their powers in the air and that Allied aerial forces are asserting an unusual mastery of the skies.

From North Africa Lieut. Gen. Spatz says that the Northwest Africa Air Forces have "secured supremacy of the air since the Mareth battle began" on March 20th, shooting down 519 Axis planes and losing only 175.

In addition, he estimates that nearly a thousand enemy planes have been destroyed or damaged on the ground by a series of attacks against enemy air bases, with Allied losses in this phase of operations being less than "two figures."

This is a record that should encourage Americans and their Allied nations. Certainly, it proves beyond doubt the inability of the Germans and Italians in Tunisia to meet our overwhelming strength.

Farm Real Estate Rising Sharply

Farm real estate is rising sharply in value, according to the Department of Agriculture, which reports that the index based on acre value stood at 99 on March 1st on a nationwide basis, as compared with 91 a year earlier.

Increased value for farming lands is inevitable with the rise of commodity prices, record levels of farm incomes and accumulations of liquid funds by farmers and others.

The increase in values came during the last four months, or since November 1943. Whether the trend is continuing is important because there is considerable danger in soaring values from farm real estate.

The Department of Agriculture points out that value-stimulating influences are offset to some extent, by factors tending to produce decreased value. These include farm labor shortages, higher wages and other costs and the recollection of the crash in values which followed the last war.

We doubt if the increase in farm real estate value has reached a dangerous stage. In fact, the probability is that some further increase will result. Just the same, it is well for buyers of farm land to be familiar with past history before investing heavily in farm real estate.

We call attention to this increase because we are aware of the tremendous losses suffered by some farmers when depression years forced down the values of their real estate holdings.

The purchase of land for cash by an individual able to utilize it is not to be confused with the speculative purchase of farm lands, with the buyer borrowing some of the money and expecting to reap a profit out of a re-sale at a higher price.

Yanks In Tunisia

It is right and proper that the spotlight should be on Britain's brilliant Eighth Army as the Allies close the lines around Tunis and Bizerte. Some Americans are a bit dismayed that General Patton's armored force is subordinated in the news and on the field is relegated to mopping up, while General Montgomery's desert-sharpened spearhead probes the Nazis' defense position. But surely the veterans of the Eighth Army are not only entitled to the major credit for finally running Rommel to earth; they are the ones who have proved their ability to deal with him.

There is no disgrace in the fact that the Yanks in Tunisia are still learning. On the home front there is some disappointment that they failed to cut off Rommel's retreat but it is not at all clear that the Allied high command expected them to do that. Apparently there was a plan for them to clip the end of Fox Rommel's tail of tanks at Kairouan, which failed through a fumble at

HONOREE AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Complimenting her daughter, Miss Elodia Lamb, on her 16th birthday anniversary, Mrs. Fronie Lamb delightfully entertained Friday evening at her home near Belvidere. The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated with potted plants and spring flowers. Festoons of crepe paper emphasized the color scheme of green and yellow.

After the guests were received, games and contests were enjoyed. Jarvis Winslow and Miss Peanie Smith were the prize winners.

The guests were invited into the dining room, lighted by the soft glow of candles, for refreshments. The table was covered with a real lace cloth and centered with a lovely cake topped with 16 glowing candles. Mrs. Lamb, assisted by Mrs. L. P. Chappell, Mrs. J. H. Boyce and Miss Agnes Ward, served the guests plates of ice cream, cakes, salted nuts in dainty baskets and candy. Tiny U. S. flags were given as favors.

Those who enjoyed the evening included Miss Elodia Lamb, honoree; Misses Gladys Chappell, Mildred Chappell, Mary Chappell, Eunice Chappell, Zenovah Chappell, Jeanne Chappell, Florence Monds, Mary Lina Raper, Marie Bunch, of Rocky Hook, Raye Dail of Edenton, Willie Mae Mansfield, Irene Mansfield, Blanche Mansfield and Peanie Smith of Beech Spring; and Lloyd Chappell, Bennie Lamb, Cyril Winslow, Harvey Chappell, John Ward, Jarvis Winslow, Worth Dail, Donald Lane, Preston Copeland, Wilton Lamb, R. H. Copeland of Belvidere, Edward Hobbs, Winford Wiggins, Wayland Hollowell of Hobbsville, Bill Clayton, Raymond Bohns and "Slats" McGongoe of Elizabeth City, Otis Mansfield of Beech Spring, Sidney Stallings, Royce Hurdle of Joppa, and John Waff of Edenton.

HOBBS-LAMB

Mrs. Sophronia Lamb announces the marriage of her daughter, Lillian Artelia, to Sgt. Leroy Hobbs, of Camp Forest, Tenn. The marriage took place on April 3rd, 1943.

Patton had only four divisions and only part of that armored. And after the loss of tanks at Kasserine Pass, his force might have been hunted rather than the hunter had it been interposed between Rommel and von Arnim.

The American force also faced the most difficult supply problem in Tunisia, being much farther from sea transport than either the British First Army or the Eighth. It played a useful part in hanging on Rommel's flank and engaging part of his strength while Montgomery was pushing up the coast. And it will play an increasingly worthy role as it is toughened and forged into a team by actual campaigning.

The home front has been fed so much boastful ballyhoo that many Americans haven't realized that their troops on the line in Tunisia comprise only about a tenth of the Allied force. And some of the troops had a "cockiness" that needed to grow into true confidence. They are learning. Phil Ault of the United Press writes: "Gone is their egotism, their foolish bravado, their aimless joking about the enemy being a pushover." This may be accounted not least among the Allies' recent gains in Tunisia.—Christian Science Monitor.

MRS. BENTON HOSTESS TO DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The Snow Hill-White Hat Home Demonstration Club met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Benton. The president called the meeting to order and "Battle Hymn of the Republic" was sung. Old and new business was discussed, after which War Stamps were sold to the members.

Each member was asked to stand and tell the cost of the dress she had on if she made it, and what it would have cost her ready-made. It was found that the club members as a whole saved about two-thirds of the cost of the dresses by making them.

The hostess served a sweet course to the following: Mesdames Floyd Mathews, J. B. Eure, J. W. Overton, Marvin Benton, Raymond Eure, Geo. Eure, William Whedbee, Ralph Harrell, Geo. Jordan, Elmer Wood, Freeman Umphlett and Miss Frances Maness, Mrs. Wallie Knight and Mrs. Paul Knight, of Norfolk, Va.

UP-RIVER SOCIETY MEETS

Mrs. Mary Williams and Mrs. Roy Winslow were joint hostesses to the Up-River Woman's Missionary Society which met on Saturday afternoon. "Bringing in the Sheaves" was used as the opening song. Mrs. Dempsey Winslow conducted the devotional which consisted of Scripture reading and prayer by Mrs. Elizabeth White. Members answered at roll call by repeating a verse of Scripture containing the word "Peace."

Miss Edith White gave the lesson in a very interesting manner. Members reported having read 435 chapters of the Bible, and 83 visits to the sick and those shut-in were reported during the past month.

"Sweet Peace, the Gift of God's Love" was sung and Mrs. Elizabeth White offered the closing prayer.

A delightful social hour followed the business session and the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

Those present were: Mesdames Charlie Baker, Elmer R. Winslow, Robert Winslow, Elizabeth White, Henry Winslow, Delphina Winslow, Verna Winslow, Luther Winslow, Dempsey Winslow, Roy Winslow, Howard Chappell and Mary Williams, and Miss Edith White.

NEWS FOR MOTORISTS

—as broadcast this week on the Kaltenborn program

ANNOUNCER:

Government authorities say there is nothing on the horizon in the nation's rubber situation which should encourage carelessness with tires! Far from it. The rubber that has been made available for necessary replacements has got to carry us a long, long way. It remains every car owner's patriotic duty to preserve his present tires. Let your Pure Oil dealer give you the regular check of air pressures and tire condition which alone can do so much to lengthen tire life. Many Pure Oil dealers are authorized Tire Inspectors. When a tire does become worn, see one of these official OPA inspectors about your eligibility for a replacement or recapping. Recent government regulations make replacements available, when necessary, to motorists with A, B or C books. But, above all, care for your tires, for your country—at the big, blue-and-white Pure Oil sign!
