

Davenport-Coffield Vows Spoken Easter Sunday At Edenton

Mrs. Mary L. Coffield, of Hertford, announces the marriage of her daughter, Helen Phatine, to Joshua Everett Davenport, of Edenton.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed Sunday, April 25, at the twilight hour at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davenport, of Edenton. The Rev. E. L. Wells, pastor of the Edenton Baptist Church, officiated, reading the vows in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

The bride was attired in an ensemble, her dress being of navy blue and white with a coat of Heaven blue. Her off-face hat was of blue and white and she wore matching accessories. Orchids formed her shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Davenport is the attractive daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Coffield and the late Kader B. Coffield, of Hertford. She attended Perquimans High School and is a graduate of Chowan Junior College, Murfreesboro. She now holds the position as chief clerk to the Perquimans County War Price and Rationing Board.

Mr. Davenport is connected with the Friendly Market in Edenton and is also farming.

The young couple plan to make their home with the bride's mother.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Spruill, of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. J. R. Davenport, of Sunbury.

Applications For Pressure Cookers Now Being Taken

Dr. E. S. White, chairman of the County Farm Ration Committee, announced today that he has been notified that pressure cookers will be rationed immediately and that applications are now being received at the Agriculture Building by Helene Nixon, clerk of the committee.

After applications have been made the applicant must locate his cooker before a purchase certificate will be issued. However, the committee will mail each applicant a letter giving details regarding the ration procedure. Persons desiring cookers for canning purposes this year should make their applications at once.

Two Negro Selectees Accepted By Army; To Camp Thursday A. M.

Two Negro selectees, Wilbur Riddick and Herbert White, Jr., were accepted by the Army from the last contingent of draftees sent by the Perquimans Draft Board. These men left Thursday morning for Fort Bragg to begin military service.

Mrs. Ruth Sumner, clerk of the local Board, announced this week that she had received instructions from State headquarters that local boards may again announce the names of selectees sent to induction centers for acceptance by the Armed forces.

Two calls have been received by the local Board for May, but due to the fact that a great majority of Perquimans registrants have been frozen to their duties on farms, the Board will be unable to fill the calls one hundred percent.

Perquimans Training School Holding Final Exercises For Year

Commencement exercises at the Perquimans Training School began Monday afternoon with the elementary and grammar grades having a picnic on the school grounds.
