W. C. T. U. MEETING
The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held its May meeting on Wednesday afternoon in the Methodist Church. Mrs. H. G. Dawkins stated that perhaps folks are aware as never before of alcohol as an enemy. She said, "It is an enemy to health. Alcohol is the great enemy of our homes. Our country needs our money, and yet, what is spent for alcoholic beverages runs into billions of dollars. A large per cent of children in our orphanages are there because of alcohol." Mrs. R. L. Knowles told a story on the evils of alcohol and why abstinence is a necessary stone in the foundation of home-making. Mrs. E. W. Mayes read the minutes. Mrs. L. C. Winslow, president, presided at the business session. Mrs. Winslow urged that each member write her representatives in Washington, asking them to support the bills relative to the problem of alcohol. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Knowles.
