GOING AWAY SALE

Having received my call from Uncle Sam to join his Armed Forces, I am closing out a large part of the merchandise of our store. We have too much stock to be carried under the conditions as they will exist while I am away, so I am passing it on to customers at great savings. Our store will continue to operate, but possibly our service may be curtailed considerably, and if this does happen, please remember, this is war and the condition is beyond my control. When it is over I hope to be back serving you again with the same good service as offered in the past. This sale is for this week-end only — starts Saturday and ends Tuesday. All items are on sale for Cash and Carry. No phone orders and no deliveries. Come and get your share.
