

Superior Court In Session This Week

Each was ordered to keep in work at gainful occupation and placed on probation for three years.

The hearing of civil cases was started on Monday when Judge Thompson heard two uncontested divorce actions and a large part of the civil docket was cleared before court adjourned on Tuesday.

Four civil actions were disposed of on Tuesday, when it was announced that a compromise had been agreed upon in the case Patrick against Treadwell, and the suits of D. M. Jackson against R. H. Browning, and the suit of A. A. Nobles against N. C. Spivey were non-suited. The Hollowell Chevrolet Company was awarded judgment in a suit against Burley Kelly.

Three divorce cases were also disposed of on Tuesday.

The Jennings against Jennings suit, heard Wednesday, was declared a mis-trial when one of the jurors was ordered withdrawn. The case of J. H. Towe vs Army Thompson was handled by compromise and in the last case of the day judgment was awarded in the suit of Chappel against Perry.

Month Set Aside To Cut More Pulpwood

boys would be severely handicapped. With an abundance of it, our boys will be able to do their job effectively and quickly. They will tick the Axis and be home sooner if we do not falter."

Reciting the slogan of the newspaper pulpwood drive for November 11 to December 11, Mr. Earle said:

"Cut a cord of pulpwood for every boy and girl in the armed service means more than just an appeal to patriotism. It is an opportunity to back up that boy or girl with supplies, equipment and food. It may even save his life."

Mr. Earle recalled that the only apparent attempt made by the Japs to bomb the mainland of the United States in this war was the dropping of a bomb in the vast pulpwood producing areas of Oregon.

"If the Japs want our timber so badly, we ought to oblige," he said. "But let's give it to them in the form of bullets, bombs, and shells. One way we can pay our respects to the Japanese and German warlords is to cut a cord of pulpwood for every boy in the service and thus give them a double-barrelled discharge from America's two battle-lines—the fighting front and the home front."
