CHRISTENSEN-DARDEN VOWS SPOKEN SUNDAY

(Jg) William O. Stahl, Harrell Johnson and W. L. McClemrock, of Durham.

The bride, a popular member of the Hertford younger set, is a graduate of the Perquimans High School and Maryland University School of Nursing.

The young couple will make their home at Key West, Florida.

The bride traveled in a dress-maker suit of gold wool, matching calot trimmed with brown coque feathers, brown accessories and an orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents for members of the bridal party and out-of-town guests.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barrow, Lieut. and Mrs. Carl Soderholm, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Off Sullivan and Miss Virginia DeSheilds, all of Norfolk, Va.; W. L. McClemrock of Durham, and Lieut. and Mrs. Leslie Pew, of Norfolk, Va.

W. S. C. S. MEETS WITH MRS. ASHBY JORDAN

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Woodland Methodist Church met with Mrs. Ashby Jordan on Wednesday afternoon, March 15.

The president, Mrs. Earl Hollowell, presided. "Wonderful Words of Life" was used as the opening hymn. The roll was called and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

During the business session $3.25 was raised for Christian Social Relations to be given a Negro girl who is sick.

Mrs. Ashby Jordan read from Psalm 137:1-4, after which "Holy, Holy, Holy" was sung. The lesson topic for the month was "New Voices." "The Domestic Worker" was given by Mrs. Jack Benton, and "The Women in the Church" by Mrs. Ralph Harrell. "In the Garden" was sung.

Mrs. Ernest Cartwright gave the Spiritual Life program, with Mrs. Henry Cartwright and Mrs. Elmer Wood assisting. "He Leadeth Me" was then sung.

Mrs. Earl Hollowell very interestingly gave three chapters from the Study Book, "God and the Problem of Suffering." The last three chapters will be given by Mrs. Jack Benton and Mrs. Hollowell at the next meeting.

Mrs. Lowery Cartwright and Mrs. W. M. Mathews were welcomed as new members.

Mrs. Hollowell dismissed the group with prayer.

The hostess served ice cream and cake to the following: Mesdames J. W. Overton, J. W. Everett, George Jordan, Elmer Wood, W. H. Cartwright, Odell Cartwright, Harry Winslow, Ralph Harrell, Jack Benton, Will Hoffer, Jr., W. M. Mathews Earl Hollowell, Ernest Cartwright, Lowery Cartwright and Ashby Jordan.
