

Per-Co-Hi Tattler

By Willie Mae Mansfield (10-A)
The Juniors were not supposed to get their class rings until June 16, but fortunately, Mr. Campen of Edenton, who represented the Herff-Jones Co., was able to get the order filled sooner than was expected, and they were presented to the Juniors May 19.

There are 242 names of former P. C. H. S. students who are now in the armed forces, represented on our service flag. There are five gold stars representing Travis Nurney, John Everett, Johnnie Elliott, David Broughton and Billy Tucker, who have been killed in action.

Examinations started Monday for the seniors, and for the underclassmen Wednesday.

Doward Jones (10-B) reported to Fort Bragg for physical examination on Wednesday, May 17. Doward passed the physical and will soon be in the Navy. Daryl Hurdle (11-A) reported also.

A bus drivers class was taught students 16 years of age and older, May 18, by Mrs. Futtrell.

The pupils of Mrs. R. R. White presented a music recital entitled "Musical Playland", May 15, at the Perquimans Central Grammar School. High School students taking part in the recital were Marjorie Rebecca White (10-A), Catherine Jordan (9-B) and Daphne Winslow (8-2).

The editors of the Per-Co-Hi-Tattler column wish to express their appreciation to Max Campbell, editor of The Perquimans Weekly, for giving us space for our column. We know that the column has been read with interest by the pupils at P. C. H. S., as well as by the alumni who are away from home serving with the armed forces.

As school closes May 31, this week will be the last Per-Co-Hi-Tattler column for the school year.

WHAT FARMERS WANT WHEN THEY BORROW

FRIENDSHIP WITH LENDER

THERE'S an old saying "Business and Pleasure don't mix." Like many old sayings, it's not true. We wouldn't be in this banking business if we didn't get real pleasure out of working with you and other farmers. We value beyond price the friendships we have made, and we constantly try to cement our friendships still closer by giving honest, sincere service. We want to work with you, and we hope that you'll give us the chance.
