Edenton High Meets Hertford On Friday

were scheduled due to the vast difference in strength of the two squads. An interesting sidelight of the series is the fact that in the first eight games played, Edenton was able to win only one game, and in the next eight games Hertford won only one game. In the last six games Edenton has won only one game, so that Coach Lindsay's boys are hopeful that this year they can break the jinx of cycles of eight.

Scores of the games played between the two teams to date follow:

Pulpwood Producers Praised; Continued Help Called Vital

The nation's achievements in war production — announced recently by WPB Chairman J. A. Krug—serve to emphasize "the unselfish patriotism of our farmers and woods workers in meeting America's pulpwood requirements during the war," the Perquimans Victory Pulpwood Committee said this week, stressing that now, in the words of Mr. Krug, "industrial mobilization must be kept alive and current."

Among the total munitions and war equipment production figures released by Mr. Krug were these: More than 26,000,000 pairs of combat boots, 55,273,000 trousers, 15,273,000 overcoats, 517,000,000 pairs of socks, 43,270,000 wool blankets, 1,412,506,000 sulfa-diazine tablets, 11,835,000 ampules of penicillin and 17,400,000 rifles.

In commenting on these figures, the committee declared: "It is important to remember that every pair of boots, every rifle, every package of sulfa-diazine, as well as other items listed and the hundreds of thousands of items not listed, all required paper, paperboard or other pulpwood products to wrap, package or tag these items."

"Moreover," the committee pointed out, "vast quantities of additional pulpwood actually went into the manufacture of hundreds of other wartime items."

The Perquimans Victory Pulpwood Committee gave as the first example of such continuing cooperation in

IN MEMORIAM
In loving remembrance of dear mother, Mrs. Lydia Harrell, who departed this life October 6, 1933. Gone but not forgotten.

Dearest Mother, how I miss you Since from earth you passed away. No one will ever know how my heart Has ached since the day you left me stay.

The saddest part of all, dear mother, Is the night you passed away. Your children were all beside your bedside, But you couldn't say goodbye.

Jesus knows our every heartache, Every burden and care. He prepared for us a place Where there will be no sickness there.

Let us try to follow Jesus, So we can meet our loved one there. Then we'll be with them in Heaven Where we'll never say farewell.

There will be no disappointment In that land so bright and fair. There I hope to meet my mother In that beautiful land up there.

peacetime, the current recruitment campaign for woods and mill workers now being jointly conducted here by the pulp and paper industry and the U. S. Employment Service, and added: "Peacetime needs for pulpwood products are expected to substantially exceed even wartime requirements, a condition now reflected by the immediate need of mills in this area for more top quality pulpwood."

WINSLOW-TRUEBLOOD

On October 21, 1945, at 7 o'clock P. M., in the Bagley Swamp Church, Mildred Beatrice Trueblood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Trueblood, became the bride of Ernest Melvin Winslow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie T. Winslow.

The Rev. W. B. Walker, pastor of the church, officiated.

Candles, evergreens and white gladioli decorated the altar. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Elwood White played soft music, while Mary Trueblood, sister of the bride, lighted the candles, after which Miss Neppie Maude Smith sang "Life's Pathway We Tread Together." Lohengrin's Wedding March was used as professional.

The bride was dressed in a blue gabardine suit with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses.

Chester Winslow, brother of the County.

bridegroom, James Trueblood, brother of the bride, Misses Syble Monds and Mozelle Smith were the attendants. Miss Monds was dressed in a gray suit with black accessories. Miss Smith wore a green suit with black accessories. Their corsages were pink roses.

The bridal couple left immediately for Washington, D. C.

Bowel Cleaning Power Of Inner-Aid Medicine

One man recently took INNER-AID three days and said afterward that he never would have believed his body contained so much filthy substance. He says his stomach, intestines, bowels and whole system were so thoroughly cleansed that his constant headaches came to an end, several pimply skin eruptions on his face dried up overnight, and even the rheumatic pains in his knee disappeared. At present he is an altogether different man, feeling fine in every way.

INNER-AID contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get INNER-AID. Sold by all Drug Stores here in Perquimans County. adv
