

Miss Mildred Copeland And Clyde Jenkins Wed

In a candlelight ceremony the marriage of Miss Mildred Constance Copeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Copeland of Belvidere and Clyde Wilson Jenkins, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jenkins of Potocasi, was solemnized on Sunday, December 23, at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. E. H. Millikan, pastor of the bride, officiated.

The living room was decorated with white gladioli and white candles. Palms furnished a background of greenery for the wedding scene.

Mrs. H. P. White at the piano rendered a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony and softly played Indian Love Call during the ceremony. Miss Dorothy Davis of Seaboard sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride entered the living room with her father who gave her in marriage. She was attired in a pink-beige gabardine suit and wore a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. George Winslow of Norfolk, cousin of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore an aqua wool dress with pink roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Linwood Jenkins, cousin of the groom, as best man.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Willard and Parker Copeland, brothers of the bride, lighted the candles.

Miss Hilda Ruth Martin of Conway was mistress of ceremonies.

Jack Jenkins, brother of the groom was usher.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home in Potocasi.

Mrs. Jenkins is a graduate of East Carolina Teachers College and for the past two years has been a member of the Woodland-Olney High School faculty.

Following the wedding rehearsal on Saturday evening, the parents of the bride entertained at a cake cutting at their home.

Tuesday evening, December 11, Mrs. Sam Taylor, Misses Dorothy Davis and Hilda Martin of Woodland, entertained for the bride with a bridge party. The bride was presented a silver tray.

Friday evening, December 14, the Home Economics Club of the Woodland High School honored the bride with a miscellaneous shower.
