

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our loving daughter, Leslie Vivian Davis, who died four years ago, April 18, 1947:
Your place at home is vacant and your sweet and smiling face
We are happy to know God took you to a better place.
We often sit and wonder why God took you so soon.
He knew you were ready, that's why He took you home.
At night we still are lonely for your sweet and smiling face.
Leslie, darling, there is no other who can ever take your place.
Our hearts still ache for you day after day,
By trusting in God we know it was His way.
We do not know how much you suffered, no tongue can ever tell,
But we know Jesus doeth all things well.
We look at your little toys and think how you used to play,
And how much you enjoyed everything in your own little way.
Your loved ones are still sad and lonely, everything is still,
It was so hard to give you up, but we know it was God's will.
You were so kind and loving, always had a smile.
We do not know how soon we will meet you,
It may be just a little while.
No one knows how much we loved you, dearest Leslie,
But we know Jesus loved you best.
He softly called you, and took you home to rest.
We trust and pray some day we will meet you
In that beautiful city and in that land
Where we will never grow old.
—Mother and Dad, Sister and Brothers.

IN MEMORIAM

As the glow of the beautiful Easter season faded from our sight, the soul of Edward L. Chappell took its flight from earth to Heaven, at his home in Belvidere, April 8th, at 5 o'clock P. M., age 72 years.
In the going home of Mr. Chappell, Belvidere community and Perquimans County lost a peaceful, friendly and generous hearted Christian citizen.
February 18, he suffered a severe stroke of paralysis and although he uttered few words afterwards, his friendly smiles and genial spirit followed to the end.
He taught school in '96 and '97 and in 1898 he established a mercantile business near his home. In addition to this he operated a saw mill, a grist mill and a cotton gin.
Between the years 1926 and 1936 he assisted in carrying the mails, after which he again became a successful merchant and continued until his illness and death.
In 1901 he married Mary Lane of Chowan County, who preceded him to the Better Land a few years ago.
Surviving are four sons, four daughters, fourteen grandchildren, five brothers and two sisters.

He will be missed in the home, in the community and especially in the church and Sunday School, where with loyal devotion he served as superintendent for nearly 34 years.
A marked characteristic was his unusual ability to handle situations with a calm and sunny spirit.
His hospitable home was always open to friends and traveling ministers.
The funeral service was held at Piney Woods Church Friday afternoon, the 11th, with a very large attendance. Claud Bullock, Bertha S. White and Elizabeth White gave suitable messages.
The choir sang two of his favorite hymns, "Abide With Me" and "It Is Well With My Soul." "The City Four Square" was sung as a solo by Mrs. R. M. White.
Among the lovely floral tributes was a beautiful bleeding heart design, given by the members of his Sunday School.
Interment was in the family cemetery near the church.
Active pallbearers were Dr. I. A. Ward and the five brothers.
"We'll think of him as living on as dear
In the Land of There as in the Land of Here."
—A FRIEND.
