Miss Annie E. Garris Weds Burrus Chappell

The marriage of Miss Annie Eliza Garris, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cleveland Garris, of Ayden, and Burrus Thomas Chappell, the son of Mrs. John Squire Chappell of Tyner, and the late Mr. Chappell, took place on November 30 in the Elm Grove Church. The Rev. J. C. Moye performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Ruth Clark of Greenville played the wedding music. Miss Mary Ida Moye of Snow Hill sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a frost white flannel herring bone suit. Her hat was a halo-style matching felt trimmed with black veil to match other accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Wesley R. Green of Durham, who wore a blue gabardine suit with pink accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Wesley R. Green of Durham was best man. Ushers were brothers of the bride, Edward Garris of Wilmington and Ray Garris.

The mother of the bride wore a black gabardine suit with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Dallas McPherson of Littleton acted as mistress of ceremonies.

An informal reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Saturday evening after the rehearsal the wedding party was entertained at a cake-cutting, also at the home of the bride.

After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Chappell will be at home at Belvidere.

Mrs. Chappell, who is a graduate of the East Carolina Teachers College, is at the head of the commercial department of the Perquimans County High School. Mr. Chappell is engaged in business in Belvidere.

Prior to her marriage the bride was the guest of honor at several parties both in Ayden and in Hertford.
