Fields-Perry Vows Spoken At New Hope

In a candlelight ceremony on Saturday evening, July 17, at seven o'clock, in the New Hope Methodist Church, Miss Marjorie Lou Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Tonell Perry, became the bride of George Ervin Fields, son of Mrs. George E. Fields and the late Mr. Fields. The Rev. E. B. Edwards, pastor of the bride, officiated using the double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, smilax and huckleberry, seven branch candelabra with lighted cathedral candles, with baskets of white gladioli and asters.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. R. M. Riddick, pianist, presented a program of wedding music. Miss Peggy Felton, soloist, sang Because, Through the Years and as a benediction to the ceremony The Lord's Prayer.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white imported organdy fashioned with a sheer yoke and an eyelet embroidery bertha. The long sleeves ended over the hands in circlets of eyelet embroidery. The full skirt was caught up at the hem line and fell beneath an eyelet embroidery peplum into a wide train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. Her only ornament was a gold locket, a family heirloom. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses, showered with stephanotis and centered with a purple-throated orchid.

Miss Janice Perry, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown of white organdy was fashioned with a yoke of eyelet embroidery, a fitted bodice and cap sleeves. She carried a nosegay of blue daisies and wore a matching halo in her hair.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Edward Barber of Hertford, Miss Alberta Parkhurst of Robersonville, Miss Jean Powell of Goldsboro and Mrs. Clyde Small, Jr., of Weeksville. Their gowns were of white organdy identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried nosegays of yellow daisies with matching halos of the same flowers in their hair.

Honorary bridesmaids were Misses Louise Berry, Marvis Hobbs, Dotmegan Lane, Harriet Lou Layden, Elizabeth Manning, Annie Frances Riddick and Mrs. Ray Haskett. They wore gowns in pastel shades.

Emory White of Hertford was best man. Groomsman were Jarvis Ward, Matt Spivey, Jr., Edgar Fields, brother of the bridegroom, and Gerald Perry, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a sheer black dress with black and pink accessories. Her flowers were pink roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of green crepe with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Fields graduated from Perquimans County High School and attended East Carolina Teachers College. Mr. Fields graduated from Perquimans County High School and served for three years with the United States Army Air Forces in the Pacific theatre. At present he is employed by the Retail Credit Company.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception at their home. The lower floor of the home was attractively decorated with summer flowers and lighted tapers. The dining table was decorated with a lovely lace cloth, a three-tiered wedding cake centered the table and was topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was flanked with lighted tapers in silver candelabra.

The wedding was attended by a large number of out-of-town guests which included the following: Mrs. Bessie Wilkins, Milford, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Reed, Jr., of Greensboro, N. C.; Miss Elizabeth Deans of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hill, Portsmouth, Va.; Miss Louise Hines of Williamston, N. C., and Gene Jackson of Sunbury, N. C.

Immediately following the rehearsal of the Perry-Fields wedding on Friday night, July 16, Mrs. Julian A. White of Hertford and Mrs. E. M. Perry of New Hope entertained at a cake cutting at the home of Mrs. Perry.

Upon arriving at the home the guests were served with soft drinks, after which they were invited into the dining room. The table was covered with a gorgeous imported lace cut-work cloth. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with silver wedding bells with ribbons attached centered the table. After the bride and groom cut the cake everyone was served with cake, mints and salted nuts by Mrs. Cecil Everett, Mrs. W. E. Dail, Mrs. A. R. Cook, Mrs. Elmer Banks, Miss Shirley Butt and Miss Sue Perry White.

The bride was entertained with many "reels" prior to her marriage.
